HELP! FRIDAY 13TH, 1913!

BEAT IT! HERE'S THE JINX!

BLIND FROM WATCHING LIGHT

Stricken blind after gazing at the arc of an electric welder being used on Market street, San Francisco, at an early hour this (Friday, the 13th), morning, was the experience of A. Peterson of 2871 Boehmer street, Fruitvale. Peterson had watched the electric welding process out of curiosity for fifteen minutes. The intense rays pierced the delicate membranes of the eye tissues and after walking a few blocks he found that he could scarcely see. At that juncture he met Earl Sprout and the two men crossed the bay together. Arriving in Oakland Peterson lost his sight entirely and suffered a burning pain in his eyeballs. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where Steward Davison applied compresses. The patient is in a serious condition. Men who work with the electric welders on the rails of the trolley lines are protected by masks fitted with heavy colored glass.

COUNCIL MEETS, BUT?

The city council entered the new City Hall with their fingers crossed today to keep away the Friday, 13, "Jonah." Business was reduced to a minimum by City Clerk Smith. Commissioner Harry Anderson, who has 13 letters in his name, and a store on Thirteenth street, voted twice on every resolution to make it stick. There were 13 resolutions.

WAS FINED $13

"Thirteen" in big letters pursued Judge Mortimer Smith, in whose name there are just 13 letters, all round his new court room, which he occupied for the first time today. This being a fatal day of a fatal year. Prosecuting Attorney Will Hennessey is also there with a 13 letter name.

There were only three prisoners in the dock in the new courtroom this morning.

"It's close to the jinx number," said the court as an oblique dictum. "It's the last figure of the thirteen, but we may escape yet. How many are there on the calendar?"

"Just 13, counting those in the dock," answered Clerk Fred Donahue.

The judge breathed a sigh of relief, but just as he was about to take up the first case, two patrolmen escorted a lone prisoner into the room.

"This man was left off the calendar," they explained. "He was arrested for disturbing the peace at 1813 Telegraph avenue."

"He's number 13 on the calendar and was arrested at sixteen-thirteen Telegraph," said the judge nervously. "Put him in the cooler."

The case of the thirteen prisoner was taken up last on the calendar. No. 13 was C. Prego, arrested for disturbing the peace of P. Morra. The arrest was made at 1813 Telegraph avenue. Added together, the names of C. Prego and P. Morra make 13 letters. Morra testified that Prego had called him 13 evil names of an unprintable character.

With a combination like that, Judge Smith, who has a 13-letter name, couldn't get out of finding the defendant guilty. It took just 13 minutes to try the case.

"I might as well finish the job and jinx the jinx," declared Smith. "The defendant is fined $13."

JINX WATCHED BOCK

Captain Charles Bock is not a superstitious person, yet the combination that was presented to him today was a little too strenuous. Patrolman John Gardner wears Star No. 13. He had been on the Oakland police force for just 13 years and was appointed on the thirteenth of the month. If there had been 13 months

AVIATOR PLUNGES INTO IRON DISCHARGE PIPE HAS MIRACULOUS ESCAPE FROM DEATH

ALAMEDA, June 13.—Plunging to the earth from 100 feet in the air, with his engine stopped, Gus Seyfried, an aviator at the Alameda aviation grounds, collided with the huge discharge pipe of a dredger company and upset his Bleriot monoplane this morning. The aviator escaped injury by a miracle. A nearby resident observing the accident, sent to the Emergency Hospital for the ambulance, but when the ambulance reached the field Seyfried was at work on his wrecked machine which was lying upside down on the marsh.

Seyfried had no opportunity to vol-plane when his engine stopped working. A greater elevation would have permitted Seyfried to maneuver his craft to advantage. The machine sailed for the ground on a direct path, barely clearing a fence and striking with considerable force on a little sandy knoll. The jar of the abrupt landing caused Seyfried to lose control for an instant of his steering gear and the machine, running swiftly over the ground, struck forcibly against the big 24-inch discharge pipe of a dredger. The collision caused the airship to lift into the air, rocking like a ship in a heavy gale. Making a swoop of 100 feet beyond the pipe the machine suddenly turned turtle and landed on top of the aviator. Fortunately the aviator was clear of the engine and other more weighty parts of the monoplane and beyond a general jar was not hurt.

Both blades of the monoplane propeller were snapped off short and the planes and woodwork were damaged, but the engine escaped serious damage. Two big dents were stove in the heavy dredger pipe where the monoplane struck.

Seyfried has been flying on the Alameda field for about a month. He lives at 67 Cook street, San Francisco

ATTEMPTED SWINDLE IS CHARGED

Former Convict Accused of Stealing and Trying to Pass Draft

E. H. Lederer in Jail for Bold Operations; Shot Trying to Escape

Armed with a draft and letters, cards and identification papers of J. G. Napier, a prominent attorney of Poplarville, Miss., alleged to have been stolen from the latter during a tour of San Francisco saloons, E. H. Lederer, accused of forgery and shot by Police-man P. C. Downey while trying to escape, attempted to put through one of the cleverest swindles ever attempted in Oakland, according to the police, who today cleared up the mystery surrounding the man's actions. The draft, believed at first to have been forged by the man, was not a forgery, but was stolen from the real J. G. Napier, and it was held up because the latter on noticing its absence wired to stop payment.

Lederer, who came here from San Diego, was formerly in a Texas prison on a similar charge, according to the police. He met Napier in San Francisco and the two proceeded to "do the saloons." When Napier awoke in a hotel Lederer was gone and also all Napier's effects. These included an insurance policy, a Pullman ticket and the draft. The first two were used by the man here as identification exhibits when at the Realty Syndicate he negotiated for the purchase of a large tract of land. He then, after having left his draft with the realty firm, went to Mandel Goldwater and M. J. Schoenfeld and attempted to purchase jewelry on credit, referring to the Realty Syndicate to prove his standing.

INVESTIGATE DRAFT

In the meantime the Syndicate had investigated the draft and finding that it would not be honored, had Lederer arrested. The man attempted to escape in front of the city hall and was shot. He is now at the Receiving Hospital with a bullet in his back. This will be removed by operation tomorrow.

The papers bearing Napier's name were at first believed Lederer's under an alias, and in the meantime M. G. Blackwell Jr., an attorney in Poplarville, called the aviator for the name of Napier, suspecting from published accounts that Lederer and Napier were one. Lederer declared that he had been in Poplarville when questioned, stated that he was an attorney and that he knew Blackwell. Pressed for details, however, he evaded questions, fearing to make a slip. In the meantime Napier, who moved to the Anwa apartments in Oakland, was located by Detective Kyle today and cleared the mystery.

Had the draft been honored the man would have been enabled to secure jewelry on credit through the reputation gained by the realty deal and would then probably have disappeared, say the police. He will be held for theft and for an attempt to obtain money under false pretenses.

The 'Monocle Gaze' Now Being Practised in Swagger Set

"It's a slippery little circle, with a pane of glass inside. That society's adopting. To express its lofty pride. The monocle I'm speaking of. And if you cannot wear it; Society won't know you—Your credentials have no merit!"

Yes, it's quite true—the monocle has reached here by way of London, and you can't be really swaggers unless you can retain the "little" round of crystal before your limpid eye, if you are a society woman. It's the latest test of real smartness, following the swaggers sticks and Russian waltz-hounds and cigarettes of yesterday. They have all given way to the young English cousin in an evening.

It was first discovered in the exclusive midst of society at a recent ball in Oakland, when Mrs. Russell Ryan, a stately beauty who was a society girl of Oakland and San Francisco before her marriage to an eminent London physician a few seasons ago, danced through an evening with placid indifference to the stares directed at the young lady who held her beautiful eye—not that she had only one, for the other is quite as beautiful and perfect, only it wore no monocle to protect it from a pop-eyed world. Hence its obscurity.

LONDON STYLE.

"There is nothing remarkable about it," said Mrs. Ryan to the few who ventured to remark about it to her. "It is merely part of the dress of any fashionable woman in London," and she would drop it from her eye, swing

MEDDLING, CHARGE OF SENATOR

Gallinger Declares "Species of Lobby Influence" Was Used by President

Gives Opinion That Executive Should Make Statement to Congress Alone

WASHINGTON, June 13.—President Wilson's name, in connection with "White House" influence for the tariff bill, was brought before the Senate lobby investigating committee again today by Senator Gallinger, who declared the President had come "perilously near lobbying" in some of the things he had done in connection with the tariff bill. Gallinger did not make a direct charge that the "President had lobbied" for the tariff bill, but the intimations in his testimony were taken by Democratic Senators to be so broad that they subjected him to a long cross-examination on the White House influence.

Senator Gallinger's statement came as a profound sensation.

"When a man says that he would 'hang some one as high as Haman' if that person did not do certain things," said Senator Gallinger in reply to a question by Senator Reed, "and that an industry which proposed reduction of wages and did so would be investigated, I think that is about the worst kind of influence I can imagine."

"What do you think of a public official that gets up a scare about an insidious lobby?" asked Senator Nelson.

"That he intends to influence public opinion and the opinion of public men," returned Senator Gallinger.

"SPECIES OF LOBBY INFLUENCE."

"Would you regard it as a species of lobby?"

"From my own inability to define the term to my own satisfaction perhaps I would not like to say. It was a species of lobby influence."

"It was an intimation that men are afraid to overstep the judgment lest the people suspect them of lobbying," persisted Senator Nelson.

"It so impressed me," replied Senator Gallinger.

"You think, then, that members of Congress can be intimidated?" asked Chairman Overman.

"I have no disposition to criticize public officials for cheap partisan purposes," returned Gallinger. "I still am forced to the belief that the influence used in behalf of free sugar

Tariff Bill Soon to Be Ready for Caucus

WASHINGTON, June 13.—With majority members of the Senate finance committee continuing to approve reductions in tariff rates of the Underwood bill and transfers of articles to the free list, the measure is rapidly being whittled into shape for the senatorial caucus.

Majority members of the finance committee expect to have the tariff bill ready for the caucus by the middle of next week. The resumed consideration today of sub-committee reports.

President Makes Several Nominations

WASHINGTON, June 12.—President Wilson today made the following nominations: Minister to Cuba, William E. Garrison of South Carolina; Minister to Nicaragua, Benjamin H. Patterson of Colorado; Minister to Costa Rica, Edward J. Hale, of North Carolina; assistant treasurer of the United States at St. Louis, Willard D. Vandiver.

Negro Jailed for Assault Is Lynched

ANADARKO, Ark., June 12.—Denny Simmons, a young negro, who was jailed and murder of Miss Sute Church, 20 miles north of Anadarko, Tuesday afternoon, was lynched today.

JULY FIRST; TUESDAY; THAT WILL BE THE DAY IDORA, PLACE! WILLIE AND SISTER THE PERSONS

Hurroo! And then hurroo some more!

The small boy and his sister have no jinx. He cares not for Friday 13. Good things come their way, in fact.

Don't believe it?

Read on:

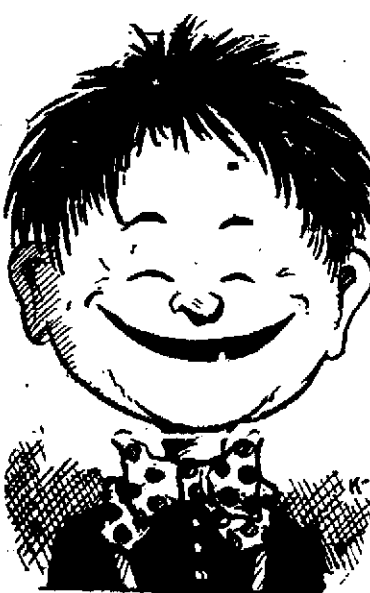

This is Friday 13, '13.

And this announcement is made on Friday 13, '13.

In fact, the biggest announcement of the year comes the small boy's way on Friday 13, '13.

Here it is:

THE CHILDREN AND GROWN-UPS OF ALAMEDA, CONTRA COSTA, SOLANO AND SAN FRANCISCO COUNTIES WILL BE THE GUESTS OF THE TRIBUNE AT IDORA

PARK, TUESDAY, JULY 1. SOME announcement! THE TRIBUNE has bought the park for that day, has purchased every concession except the Race Thru the Clouds. The small boy, his sister and his parents will enjoy at THE TRIBUNE'S expense:

SCENIC RAILWAY. RAPIDS. TOCOGGAN. MERRY-GO-ROUND. MOTION PICTURES. TEASER. SOCIAL WHIRL. OSTRICH FARM.

In a few days THE TRIBUNE will announce the date for the distribution of tickets.

Each ticket will admit the holder to five free concessions. The series of concessions on the tickets will vary.

Watch for the date of distribution.

Wait for more particulars.

Who says Willie and his sister have a jinx?

THEY HAVEN'T.

CAPITALIST ALBERT R. DABNEY IS DEAD

Lapsing into unconsciousness in the presence of the members of his family, Albert R. Dabney, a retired capitalist of this city, died suddenly last evening at his home, 1747 Webster street. The end came as a great shock to his friends and relatives, who had held out hope for his recovery, although he had been very ill during the past five days and was confined to his bed as the result of heart trouble. Prior to that time he had been ailing, but was able to attend to his affairs.

He often complained, but bravely endeavored to fight his malady which caused his demise.

He was 68 years of age and had retired from active business life about 13 years ago.

During the past thirteen years he had lived here, having arrived from Illinois, where he was a member of the legislature and a leading lawyer. He served as state senator from 1884 to 1888, and made a brilliant record in the political as well as in the legal world.

He received his education in Illinois, where he was born. Early in life he manifested a desire to follow the study of law and in the prime of his career he won many important

VENEZUELA PASSES POLITICAL CRISIS

WILLEMSTAD, Curacao, June 13.—Details of the recent political disturbances in Venezuela, where a large number of prominent men were imprisoned or took to flight following accusations of conspiracy against the government, reached here today.

It is stated that a plot to assassinate President Juan Vicente Gomez was frustrated by the imprisonment of General Delgado Chalbaud and a number of his friends. The plot was to have been carried out at the inauguration of the Venezuelan Automobile Club a few weeks ago. An announcement made by the government says:

"The plot was uncovered through General Manuel Corao, who flatly refused to join in the conspiracy. When invited to become a party to the plot he started toward Miraflores Palace to inform the president of the danger. On his way he was shot at, but escaped injury. The information he gave to the president led to the imprisonment of the plotters."

In circles in which General Chalbaud is well known it is said there was no plot of any kind against Gomez. The president is declared to have imprisoned General Chalbaud because of jealousy and fear that he arguments he had never lost his temper.

Senator Reed tried to draw the line between the President acting in behalf of the people who elected him and private interests conducting a campaign for selfish ends."I am an old-fashioned person," replied Senator Gallinger. "I still believe in the three ordinate branches of the government and it grieves me to see the executive encroaching on the paths of the others and attempting to influence legislation."
"The sugar men were represented," said Senator Reed.
"Don't you think the President ought to have a right to make his statement in messages to Congress?"NOMINATIONS DELAYED.
"You don't want to charge that the President of the United States has brought any kind of coercion to bear upon any members of Congress?"
"I would not undertake to do so.
I have no disposition to criticize him unfairly."Gallinger added that he did know that many Democrats were complaining because more offices were not filled and more nominations were not sent to the Senate."You don't mean to intimate that the President is holding up certain appointments to compel them to vote for legislation they don't desire?"

"I make no charge."

OBJECTS TO TESTIMONY.
Senator Gallinger, who had not previously testified, told the committee he had no interests outside of a "little rocky farm in New Hampshire" where he raised hay and apples. He knew of no improper influences or lobbying methods.Gallinger took exception to testimony Senator Hollis of New Hampshire had given in which William Whitman, Winthrop L. Martin, Harman F. Straw and other New England textile operators were referred to as "lobbyists.""So long as men can properly exert influence to secure legislation, as has been done in very high matters, it ought to be permitted to the interested parties to use personal appeal in opposition to that legislation," said he.SUGAR INTERESTS PROBED.
Beet sugar interests and their efforts to retain a protective duty on sugar were again under scrutiny when the Senate lobby investigating committee resumed hearings today. The extent to which public documents had been circulated in behalf of the campaign to retain the sugar protective tariff occupied the attention of the committee. The fact that the documents had been presented as "public documents" by Senators or Representatives made it possible for them to be circulated through the mails without the payment of postage.SECRET SERVICE MEN ARREST COUNTERFEITERSSAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—Warrants were turned over to the United States marshal today for the arrest of Daniel Brownfield and Fred Kuhn, arrested last night by secret service men in the Mabel house, 880 Folsom street, and accused of being counterfeiters. This afternoon they were taken before United States Commissioner Krull. Moulds consisted of writing which could be crushed with the fingers, thus destroying the evidence against them, were found. Detective Regan and Manion with Secret Service operator Statten were responsible with the approaching campaign for the presidency there is much speculation in Caracas. Many believe that Gomez will try to succeed himself, although such action is contrary to the constitution.

ARMY IS PREPARED.

Should disorder break out, General Gomez has a great many things in his favor. The army is in splendid condition. The officers are loyal to him and there is plenty of money in the government treasury.Merchants in Venezuela, who are at present enjoying great prosperity, are not inclined to support any movement which would interfere with their well-fare.The recent trouble between President Gomez and the federal council (composed of 10 of the best known military leaders of Venezuela) arose over an agreement with France which was rejected by the council, although subsequently approved by congress.
President Gomez prevailed on congress to pass a law providing that the substitute of each councilor might be called upon to serve even during the presence in Caracas of the council or himself. Several of the councilors took to flight and the remainder kept armed guard in front of their residences at all times.Will Lose $12,000
Income by MarriageST. LOUIS, June 12.—Mrs. Marion L.
J. Lambert must vacate her residence and give up her income of $12,000 a year when she becomes the wife of Adolphus Busch III. The home and the income were settled upon her when she secured a divorce last year from Marion L. J.
Lambert, but this settlement was to continue only as long as she remained single.
Adolphus Busch will lose a wage of $10,000 made with his daughter, Mrs. E.
A. Faust, on the day his grandson, Adolphus III, becomes the husband of Mrs.
Lambert.

Hoodoo Day.

In the year, he would have picked on the last one.It came Captain Bock's time to move into the new City Hall today. They had put the "jinx" on him by making him the last one to move, and he had been given trouble in leaving the place range in the city prison kitchenette on the top floor of the new City Hall connected up.But when Gardiner, Star No. 12, with a thirteenth anniversary on his hands, asked to be given a detail in assisting at the moving, Bock balked."You're a good man, Jack," he said. "I like you. You never neglect your duty and you are kind to old people and like dogs and children, and they like you.
But there is such a thing as going too far. You just go and take your day off today, and don't put a hoodoo on moving day.""Well, it never put a crimp in my appetite even on a Friday," said Gardiner, and started off on his travels for the day.Just to be on the safe side, Captain Bock hunted up Patrolman No. 23 to see what he was doing on Friday, the thirteenth, '13. He found that Patrolman J.
J. O'Connell, was on his vacation.Bock breathed a sigh of contentment.
To him came Mrs. C. F. Baxter, matron of the city jail women's quarters."They've got my place all ready for me," said Matron Baxter. "I want to move.""Where have they got you fixed up?"
queried Bock."Oh, up on the thirteenth floor," responded the lady."Couldn't you put it off till tomorrow?"
said Bock. "We're very busy.""Well, I don't see why—" commenced the matron."I've been side-stepping that thirteen all morning," answered Bock, and I'm not going to let it catch me now."Mrs. Baxter had made arrangements to leave her rooms and go to the top floor
of the City Hall, where she will be the loftiest lodger in Oakland. But she will wait till tomorrow.

FEARED JINX

Not that he is in any way superstitious about it, but District Attorney W.
H. L. Hynes is congratulating himself today that his birthday occurred yesterday instead of on Friday the thirteenth. Deputy District Attorney Walter J. Burpee enjoyed the distinction of the occasion, however, for the first time in his life as he is celebrating the important anniversary today.This is my first experience I am not going to take any unnecessary chances," said Deputy Burpee.Sheriff Frank Barnett felt the same way about the hoodoo date preferring to walk to his office instead of riding in his automobile.Deputy Sheriff Jack Collier escorted Theodore R. Lovel, a burglar to San Quentin to serve an 18-month term."May be I'll get out in 13 months," Lovel consoled himself.Deputy Sheriff Eugene Stachler shook hands with 12 visitors at the county jail up to 12 o'clock. At that hour he remarked, "I guess that I had better quit for today."

PUT JINX ON DIRT

ALAMEDA, June 12.—Those timidminded persons who were worried over the sundogs around the sun yesterday, and the significance that today is Friday, the 13th day of the month in the 13thyears of the century, quite overlooked the real significance of the sun phenomena. It was merely a signal to the world that Friday, June 13, 1913, was cleanup day in Alameda.Cleaning the city is a good deal like cleaning house, or wash days at home.
It's no day for company. Early in the morning a haze of acrid smoke covered the city, caused by hundreds of miniature conflagrations consuming dead grass and weeds on vacant lots, in rear yards and in the parking spaces on the sidewalks. All the Alameda school children put in the day with fire and torch. While the larger children did the burning, the toddlers stood bravely by with ready hose, in case any of the fires took a house to climb a fence, destroy a house or scorch a nice green lawn, as fires have a habit of doing.The work was helped along by the Chamber of Commerce, the improvement clubs, the street department of the city and several hundred adult citizens. A large amount of the work started today and to be continued tomorrow, will be completed by the latter part of the day.Mrs. Baxter had made arrangements to leave her rooms and go to the top floor
of the City Hall, where she will be the loftiest lodger in Oakland. But she will wait till tomorrow.In order to make the work as effective as possible the city was divided into districts. The following committees had general charge of the different districts:Henry Rosenthal, W. G. Taylor and

RECOVERS FROM DOPE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—Friday, the 13, proved a lucky day for Dora Berlin-ski, a pretty young girl of 20 summers who is recovering from an attack of hysteria at the Central Emergency hospital.
That the hoodoo combination was going to signalize her death, however, was taken as a foregone conclusion when she was first placed upon the operating table. The steward who brought her in from the family home, 1723 Sutter street, at 5 o'clock this morning, had been told that she had swallowed the contents of a vial of strychnine and another of morphine.
He marveled that she did not succumb in the ambulance. When the hospital was reached doctors, nurses, and attendants worked heroically with the stomach pump but not trace of poison was found. Miss Berliniski had told the steward that she had been dependent and had been suffering from love sickness. Dr. Nafziger is of the opinion that the girl is a victim of neurasthenia and that she may have had a hallucination leading her to believe that she had taken the poisons.ELKS CHOOSE ORATOR

L. C. OWEN BEATEN BY THUGS NEAR HIS HOME

Superintendent of Distribution for Gas Company Set Upon by Five Men.

Attacked by five thugs late yesterday as he stepped from the Thirteenth avenue car in front of his home, L. C. Owen, superintendent of distribution for the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, was left senseless on the street. The men's assaults ended when Owen was unconscious for some time and suffered, beside severe bruises and lacerations, with a pair of electricians' connecting pliers wielded by one of the men.

Owen declares that the men followed him from the corner of Thirteenth and Franklin streets, where he boarded the car. A group of strikers and sympathizers, he declares, were gathered there. They hooted at him as he passed and a number boarded the car. He declares that he thought nothing of this at the time. Arriving at Greenwood avenue he alighted and stepped from the car to reach his home, 3817 Greenwood avenue. As he did so the five men, alighting on the other side, rushed upon him. Two pinioned his arms while the other three punched him. One then drew a pair of connecting pliers and struck him.

SAW MEN RUN
Owen dropped to the street senseless and bleeding profusely. The men then fled. Neighbors who saw the men running and Owen's prostrate form in the street, picked him up and carried him to his home, where Dr. M. R. Wallace was called. Today he regained consciousness but was able to give but a meager description of his assailants.

Owen is employed as distribution superintendent in Napa and is head of the plant having many men under him. It was on this account that he recently incurred the enmity of the strikers although he himself is not a strikebreaker. He is the first higher officer of the company to be attacked since the strike started.

Church Problems to Occupy Vacation Days

The vacation season is to be partly devoted by members to serious consideration of the church problems of future location and choice of a pastor. It has been decided to hold no further meetings or discussion of the proposal to sell the Twelfth and Clay streets property and for the choosing of a leader for the flock until near the end of summer, when the entire membership will be in town to vote on the issues.

The telegram was signed by Professor John Smith, head of the department.

STREET CAR CONDUCTORS WILL SOON HAVE STOOLS

The horns and callouses that have for so long bothered the conductors of the San Francisco and Oakland Terminal railways because of excessive standing will be eliminated within a month, according to a semi-official statement coming from the company's headquarters. Stools will be provided for the fare collectors and the exhaustion resultant after an all-day session of standing will be no longer known if the plans are carried out.

WATER RATES ARE FIXED BY COUNCIL

Ordinance Passed in Conformity With Pendleton-Titus Agreement of 1908.

The city council this morning passed to print an ordinance fixing the water rates for the fiscal year 1932-1933, with the same schedule of rates as now in force. This action was taken as predicted some weeks ago in conformity with the famous Pendleton-Titus agreement of 1908, which provided for a gradual reduction in the rates for four years on a sliding scale, and for the protection of the city from any increase thereafter over the lowest rate established.

A total saving of $118,552 was brought about by the enactment of the reduction-Titus agreement, in addition to the saving to the city through the avoidance of litigation which has cost $50,000 in the years just previous. Benjamin H. Pendleton, former mayor of the city, and the council and the present Mayor, Polk, water district project was responsible in a large degree for this saving to the consumers.

The Pendleton-Titus agreement contains a clause whereby the city is absolutely prohibited from increasing its water rates. The water company has several times demanded increases in the water rates and a return in the rates for the structural depreciation of its plant. The Supreme Court has said that such an allowance is a justifiable claim on the part of a public service corporation. But the company has agreed in the document on file since 1908 with the city clerk not to demand through the courts any increase and this agreement has worked a great saving in expense and in keeping down rates.

Warlike Moors Are Uprising in Morocco

MADRID, June 13.—Official dispatches from Melilla describe the uprising of Kabyles in the northern section of Morocco as assuming formidable proportions. Recently the Spanish position near Tetuan was subjected to a fierce attack, 22 Spaniards having been killed and 11 wounded before the enemy was repulsed.

Advices from Ceuta state heavy fighting was in progress at Mount Negro, which was bombarded by the cruiser Extramadura. The gunboat General Concha went ashore in a fog near Albufera. The Kabyles quickly observed its dangerous position and opened a fierce fire, killing the commander and wounding a score of the crew. They attempted to capture the vessel, which was saved only by the timely arrival of the gunboat Lauria. The Concha was blown up after its crew was transferred to the Lauria.

President to Stay On Job All Summer

WASHINGTON, June 13.—President Wilson personally will conduct Mrs. Wilson and their daughters to the summer White House at Cornish, N. H. It was made known today, provided Congress is not in session. The trip will be made early next month, and will last for about a month, adjourning over the Fourth of July, will take a recess probably from Wednesday to the following Monday, the national holiday falling on Friday this year.

To friends the President has let it be known that he has made up his mind to remain in the capital during practically the entire heated term.

JACKSON'S

Gaynor Is Willing For Second Term

NEW YORK, June 13.—Mayor William J. Gaynor is willing to run for re-election. In a statement issued today, he made this announcement and spoke of the prospect of his running for a second term.

"Unless the fusionists nominate me," he said, "I am out in the cold, unless some good people get together who think I have done pretty well and nominate me by petition."

"I have no party back of me, often an uncomfortable position, but I am satisfied. There are a lot of people against me. I have kept their hands out of the public treasury. I did not ask to be nominated for mayor, something led me into it. I have been through a pretty tough time since. I bear the marks of physical and moral content to go out carrying them."

JUICE TO BRYAN

Another Case of "California Cocktails" Added to the Secretary's Collection.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—One more case of grape juice was added to Secretary Bryan's collection yesterday by the delegation of harbor boosters from the city of Richmond, who called in a body and made the presentation. The grape juice was in a box made of California mahogany, bearing a silver inscription labeling the beverage as "California cocktails."

Secretary Bryan was greatly pleased with the gift. He said that Mrs. Bryan has put up a great deal of the beverage, and that he would have to sample the California article before he would believe it as good as hers.

Secretary Bryan was also called on by Secretary Lane, who promised to give his strongest support to the harbor project. He spoke of some walnut land he owned in Contra Costa, and told Sheriff Tule that he intended to look it over during a visit to California this summer.

Last evening the delegation gave a banquet to the California members of the party.

Gerry has arranged for a reception to the visitors by President Wilson on Monday afternoon, following the harbor hearing before the army board of engineers.

Mayor Owens of Richmond, spokesman for the party, said yesterday that he felt greatly encouraged over the outlook for a successful outcome of the hearing, and that the case of the Eastern shore will be so fully presented to the board that it will pave the way for an ultimate complete linking of the Richmond, Berkeley

SIGHTSEERS "SHOOED" WHEN WILSON VISITS

WASHINGTON, June 13.—"Beat it, you people! Here comes the President!" A Senate page, belling about the corridor of the chamber a few minutes after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, caught sight of President Wilson coming down the corridor to the President's room.

That showplace was full of tourists, and only the haste of the page and the forgetfulness of his announcement cleared the room before the President reached it.

Wilson wanted to see twenty-one Senators, but found only seven. The rest had gone looking or to the ball game. The subject of the conference was the personnel of the forthcoming industrial commission.

ROADS IN REPAIR

The Department of Agriculture Issues Special Pamphlet of Highway Instructions.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Increase in the number and weight of automobiles and heavy auto trucks has prompted the office of public roads of the department of agriculture to issue a special pamphlet of instructions on the maintenance of highways. It recommends the installation of heavier and more substantial foundations in road building as a means of keeping down the cost of such maintenance.

"There is probably no subject in which the progressive farmer is more deeply interested," says the road experts in a statement issued today, "than that of having roads connecting him with his markets over which he may be able to haul the greatest possible loads."

"Good roads, like all other good things, are too expensive to build and of too much value to be neglected."

The pamphlet does not go into the work of road construction to any extent but the experts have confined their recommendations to the best methods for keeping in repair roads already built.

SHOT PIERCES 'PLANE,' OFFICER NEAR INJURY

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 13.—Lieutenant A. A. Cunningham, one of the staff of naval aviators, was shot at yesterday while flying about 1,500 feet high fifteen miles below Annapolis. The bullet, which was from a small caliber rifle, penetrated the propeller and struck a part of the machinery. Though it passed within a few feet of the pilot, it did not injure him.

Mechanical Grease, it did not interfere with the manipulation of the machine. The two propellers several miles and then flew back to Annapolis without difficulty. The person who fired the shot has not been found.

New Home Treatment for Removing Hairs

(Boudoir Secrets.)

Any woman troubled with superfluous hairs can remove them in the privacy of her home without pain or trouble by applying a Grogger paste to the hairs not wanted. This paste is made by mixing powdered delatone with a little water. The paste is to remain on the skin two or three minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This treatment is quick, harmless and leaves the skin without spot or blemish. An original package of delatone is ample.

To make eyebrows grow thick and glossy, rub proxin on frequently, and for stubby, straight eyebrows apply proxin at lash roots with thumb and fore finger. This makes them grow long, silky and curly. Use care and don't get any proxin where no hair is wanted.

MUMOR ITCHED AND BURNED

Sores-More of a Rash. Soon Formed a Crust. Children Coughs and Freteful. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured Them All.

Raymond, Mead.—"Allergy today had become a scourge. The same woman the beginning more of a rash, but soon formed a crust, worse on some of them than others. It itched and burned, for the children were cross and fretful, scratching often, making it worse and kind of infected. Some of the children did not have much hair when the sores appeared, but those that did lost it all."

"I used ——— but they seemed to make the sores worse. I washed their heads with warm water and a soft brush, using Cuticura Soap. After drying I rubbed their heads all over as gently as possible with Cuticura Ointment, washing their heads only once a day, but using the Ointment two or three times a day. It never took longer than two weeks for the worst case, but generally only a week for the Cuticura Soap and Ointment to cure them." (Signed) Mrs. Helen Hoffman, June 11, 1912.

Although the Cuticura Soap and Ointment are most successful in the treatment of eruptions of the skin, such as eczema, and itching, the Cuticura Soap is valuable for everyday use in the toilet, bath, and laundry, because they purify and soothe the skin, and the skin and hair from infancy to age.

(Cut.) are sold everywhere. Liberal samples sent upon request, with 22-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T. Boston."

All men who have used Cuticura with Cuticura Soap will find it a most valuable skin treatment.

TANGLE OF ROACH HEIRS STRAIGHTENED IN COURT

Heirs of the late Mrs. Roach, who died September 23, 1905, have been designated through a decision of Superior Judge J. D. Murphy after litigation in the courts during the last four years. Patrick and John McDonald, two nephews of the deceased, who reside in Ireland, will receive the $5000 estate, it having been shown that among a long list of claimants, they are next of kin.

The Roach estate was first handled by Public Administrator George Gray. At that time Mrs. A. Nelson appeared with what she purported to be a will of Mrs. Roach, but she lost her claim, and then after Public Administrator McMahon went into office a number of other litigants, all living in Ireland, sought to obtain the money. Among them were Bridget McGough, Bridget Boyle, Mary Lamb, Honor Walsh, Francis McDonald and John and Patrick McDonald.

Depositions were taken near Dublin by John Fox Esq., and forwarded to the local courts, enabling Judge Murphy to straighten out the tangle of kinship.

OFFICIALS INDULGE IN FISTIC AFFAIR

SAN MATEO, June 13.—In addition to his ability to put the knockout under the pignoles of South San Francisco, District Attorney Franklin Swart of San Mateo county demonstrated other prowess yesterday in fistic altercation with Thomas Burke, a well-known liquor dealer of San Mateo.

Swart, in his recent activities against the illegal sale of liquor, effected the closing of Cypress Lodge, a rendezvous near Belmont, conducted by Burke. Swart and Burke met yesterday for the first time in front of the Sequoia Hotel at San Mateo. Redhot words flowed in the discussion which followed.

Suddenly Swart doubled up like a pitcher in the ninth inning with the score 1 to 0 and three men on bases. As suddenly, Swart unloosed a jolt of lightning which caught Burke right on the point of the jaw. Left-hander followed right-hander and it began to look like a finish contest, when Gus Cronin, proprietor of the hotel, stepped between the antagonists.

MINE OPERATOR IS KILLED BY MERCHANT

NEW ORLEANS, June 13.—George Margarette, an Austrian, aged 60, a prosperous mine operator of Sayer, Arizona, was shot and killed here last night by a fellow-countryman, Mihos Zillich, an oyster merchant. The men quarreled about a business transaction.

DUFFY VERY ENLIGHTENED.

NEW YORK, June 13.—After deliberating 25 hours, the jury in the case of Peter J. Duffy, a police sergeant, charged with bribery, sent word to Justice Goff late today that it could not agree and was discharged.

THE POWER OF READY MONEY

These boot and shoe prices batter down the defense of the man who hesitates to buy at this sale. It leaves him without a single excuse for denying himself and those interested in him the comfort which these up-to-date shoes bring into every home. The quality is so good, so staunch, so true blue in the way they are made and the way they will wear, that only one possible excuse remains why you could deny yourself its ownership. That reason is, of course, that you can see no advantage at all in buying at this greatly reduced price. But if there is any virtue in shoes which will serve you and your family every day in the year, which satisfies alike, the millionaire and the man with moderate means, then these shoes at these prices must surely rouse you out of your indifference.

The entire stock is going at slaughter prices. Hundreds of satisfied customers agree with our low prices and profit by our generous bargains. We appreciate your patronage as you appreciate our bargains and we guarantee you satisfaction. We have done our part, now the balance is up to you.

FAVORS SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT

Senator Ashurst Submits Matter Favoring Passage of Resolution.

Wisdom, Courage, Cheer, Hope and Good Counsel Is Accredited Voters.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Senator Ashurst submitted today the report of the woman's suffrage committee recommending passage of the amendment for a constitutional amendment extending suffrage to women. "In this republic," says the report, "the people constitute the government. They are its creators and its maintenance, they are the government. That the granting of the elective franchise to women would all to the strength, efficiency, we have not the slightest doubt. "It is anomalous and archaic in a free republic, professedly made up of, controlled by, and administered for all the people, to deny to one-half of its citizens the right of exercising a valuable function of citizenship, to-wit, the elective franchise, thus preclude that one-half from the right of power to say what law or policy shall be its rule of conduct. "And this anomaly becomes odious and abhorrent when we reflect that the participation of one-half of the population is the incidental one-half from which springs so much wisdom, courage, cheer, hope and good counsel."

ALDERMEN ARE SILENT. CHICAGO, June 12.—Most of the Chicago aldermen, seen by newspaper men today, were disposed to discuss the passage on Wednesday of the woman's suffrage bill at Springfield, although the aldermanic primaries and election next spring will be the first chance of the women to vote. Alderman "Bathhouse" John Coughlin, who has represented the First ward, stated in a speech in the city hall, expressed the opinion that now that women in Illinois have the ballot they would lose most of their interest in it, and that the law would not affect the elections materially. A German alderman declared his belief that most German women were not interested in the suffrage question, but that they were interested in the effect that the public would know more about it after the next election. One alderman suggested the possibility that the women might get together and run the saloons out of Chicago.

CAINE BACK WITH LOUD PRAISES FOR PORTLAND

Joseph E. Caine, managing director of the Oakland Commercial Club, is back from Portland, eloquent in praise of the great rose festival and glad that at the last moment he made up his mind to go. "The whole trip was one continual delight to me," he said last night to a group of welcoming friends at the clubrooms, "and the best part of it was that it brought me into touch with the club members as nothing else could have done. All the Oaklanders were out for a good time, everyone untroubled and the real man in each met his fellows face to face. We were all drunk with the wine of human kindness—and, thank heaven, with nothing else. A more dignified, and at the same time a jollier crowd, I have never seen my privilege to travel with. "At Roseburg the principal residents bombarded us with roses and took the ladies of the party to all the show places of the town, bringing them back to the train with their arms filled with the blushing, fragrant flowers."

N. Y. STATE BANKERS HONORED IN CANADA

OTTAWA, Ont., June 12.—Many men prominent in banking and in public life in Canada and the United States attended a banquet given last night by the Dominion government in honor of the delegates to the convention of the New York State Bankers' association, which met outside of the United States for the first time. Friendship between the two countries was pledged and toasts were drunk to King George, the Duke of Cornwall and President Wilson. Among the speakers were Sir Charles Dunning, chief justice of Canada; Premier Borden; James J. Hill, Governor Eberhart of Minnesota; and others.

Finds Heart to Be Powerful Organ

PARIS, June 12.—Surgical research has proved that operations in the thoracic cavity can be performed as easily as in the abdomen, according to Dr. Alexis Carrel of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, New York. In a lecture at the Beaujon hospital in Paris, the Nobel prize winner declared that experiments on animals had demonstrated the heart to be an organ of very great resistance and that it does not suffer harm if the circulation is interrupted for five or even 10 minutes. The brain, however, said Dr. Carrel, is more delicate and may not be interrupted for more than three or four minutes, which, nevertheless, gives time for the accomplishment of much surgical work.

PORTOLA PRIZE POSTER CONTEST IS EXTENDED

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—The record-breaking success of the 1900 prize poster contest of the Portola festival committee of this city has resulted in its extension. According to the announcement made today by the Portola festival committee, the contest will be kept open until July 1 instead of closing June 15, as originally announced. Not only scores of San Francisco artists, but many in Oakland and in all other parts of the state, as well as in other sections of the Pacific coast, are already entered in the contest. A strong demand has been made upon the Portola committee for an extension of the time. It being declared that far better results would be secured and greater fairness to the artists would result in a contest lasting longer than a month, the period originally determined upon.

MASTER MARINER DIES OF INJURIES RECEIVED

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—C. T. Hurlburt, a master mariner, died at the Hospital this morning as the result of injuries received in an unfortunate accident at the Hunters Point, Dry Dock, yesterday afternoon. Captain Hurlburt was swimming on the wharf when the steamer Alaskan was being launched. A guide rope dragging along the pier, whipped around his legs and cast him over into the lap of the dock. He received a fractured skull and an operation performed at midnight failed to save his life.

Oakland's Best Silk Hosiery Sale To Be Repeated Tomorrow

Another Purchase of Manufacturer's Seconds--$1 to $2 Values, 79c pr

From the same maker as the last lot, which met with such favor. If we could tell you his name, and you had a silk hosiery need, you would be at Capwell's tomorrow morning when the doors open—so great is his reputation. They represent his mill clean-up and there are all sizes and weights, just as you would expect to find in a sale of this kind.

Although this very particular manufacturer dubbed them "seconds," the imperfections, if they exist, cannot be detected and mean nothing to their wearability and handsome appearance.

Some have lisle tops and soles, while others are all silk. They come mostly in black, with a few colors. Spare you all regrets by attending this sale tomorrow.

Oakland's Waterfront Improvements.

The activity of the Southern Pacific Company on the western waterfront in the reclamation of the tidelands enclosed within the area assigned to it as the city's lessee proves conclusively that the corporation intends to be ready to handle its share of the commerce which the opening of the Panama canal will bring to San Francisco bay. While the corporation did not begin the improvement of its waterfront for some time after the city had started work on the Key Route basin bulkhead and the construction of the quay wall in the inner harbor, it is making more rapid progress in the carrying out of its plans. In fact, the indications are that the Southern Pacific Company will have a line of docks a mile long ready to moor the largest ships entering San Francisco bay handling cargo direct to and from railroad cars long before the municipal docks will be in a condition to offer berths to the same class of vessels on equal terms. One-half of the Southern Pacific Company's fill of its tidal area has already been accomplished with the spoil of the dredgers excavating a channel with a depth of thirty feet of water at low tide alongside the new docks. This channel will be over one mile in length, as there is a long stretch of shallow water between the pierhead line and ship channel in the bay to be excavated to reach the outer end of the dock.

Three hundred and twenty-five feet south of the Southern Pacific's new docks will be the foot line of the "white-peg" section of the western waterfront reserved by the municipality. This area will be finally excavated to a uniform depth of thirty feet at ordinary low tide level and will serve as a channel for the common benefit of the municipal and the railroad corporation docks.

The Western Pacific Railroad Company has made no move to reclaim its one-thousand-foot waterfront leasehold south of the municipal reservation since it completed its bay ferry terminal. Nor has any intimation been given out concerning its future plans of improvement of the property, if such plans have been decided upon. The presumption is reasonable that a dock similar to that which is now being developed by the Southern Pacific and a channel corresponding with the one provided between it and the proposed municipal dock will be excavated between the latter on the south side and the Western's dock.

On the Key Route basin, the Oakland and San Francisco Terminal Railways have started work on that corporation's plans of waterfront improvement which will dovetail into the general plans which the municipality is carrying out. The enterprise has been satisfactorily financed and the work will be rushed to a finish in order to accommodate a share at least of the new commerce which the opening of the Panama canal will bring to San Francisco bay. The latest report made by Engineer Goethals in charge of that great waterway is to the effect that the canal will be ready to allow the passage of vessels before the end of the year.

District Attorney Fickert does not propose to let the Burns Detective Agency take a hand in the police graft prosecution. He is dead set against buying evidence with grants of immunity, and says he has sufficient evidence to convict without granting immunity in return for "confessions." He does not see that justice gains any advantage by letting criminals confess and go free. The Burns method is the exact reverse. The immunity bath and the contract witness are the indispensable factors in his game. The Burns agent in San Francisco attempted to butt in on the case by calling on the convicted bunco men in company with one of the indicted policemen. Hearing of their visit, the District Attorney telephoned to the jailer not to let them see the prisoners. He did exactly right. The visit of the Burns agent was an attempt to interfere with the officers of the law in the discharge of their duty.

Social Influence in Legislation.

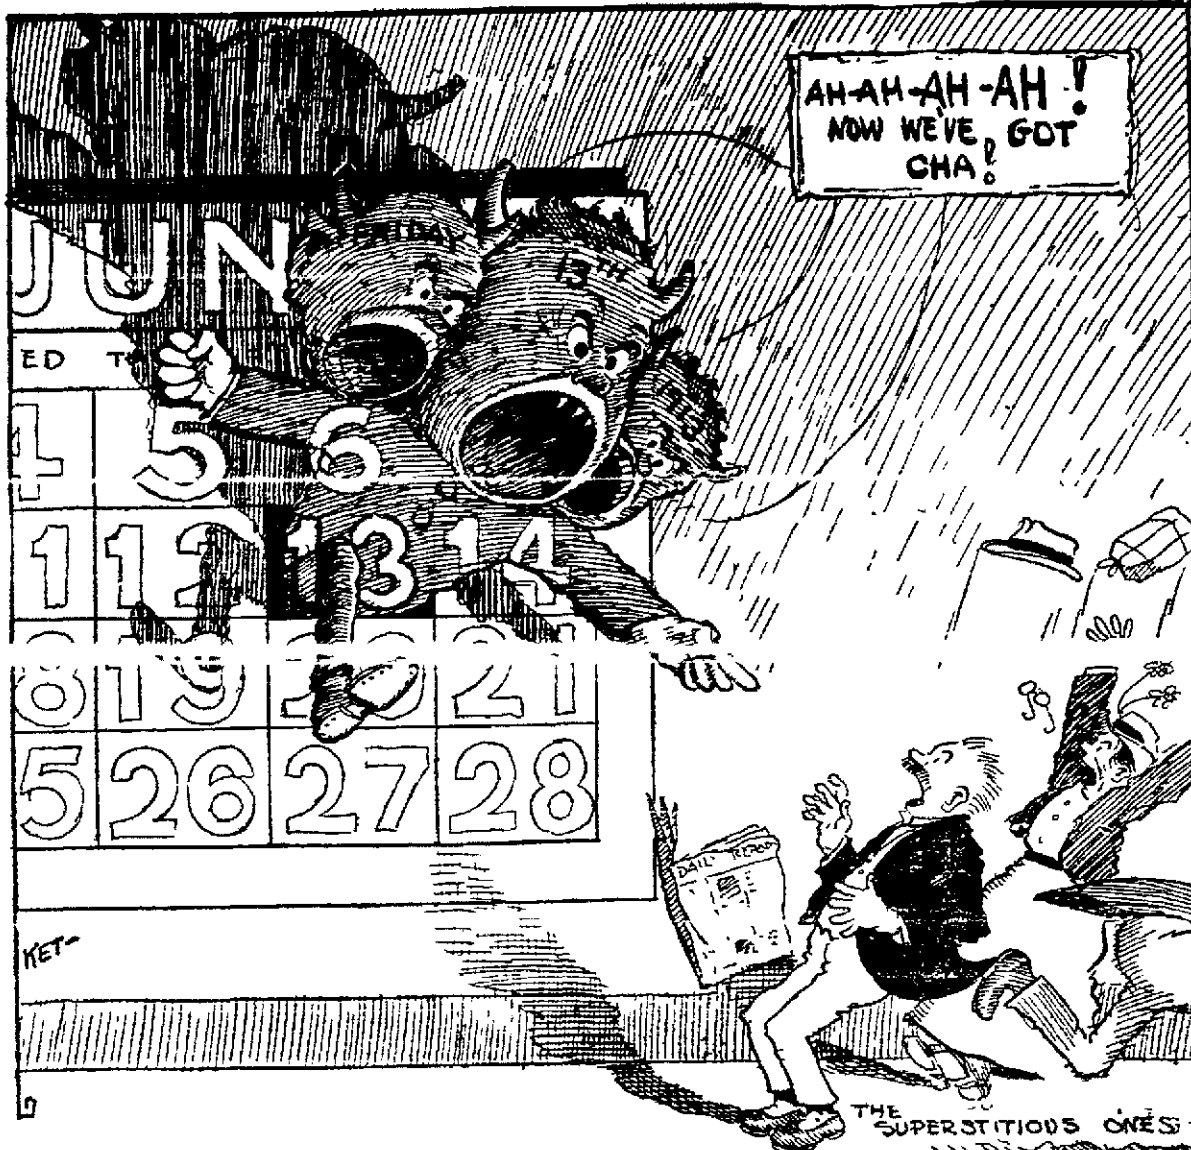

Persons who complain of "social influence" shaping tariff legislation will find some difficulty in explaining in definite terms what they mean. They will be swift to deny that they intend to convey the idea that Senators can be induced to vote one way or the other by dinners and theater tickets or by invitations to soirees and other social functions. But what then is meant by "social influence?" In what other ways can social influence exert itself?

When the matter is submitted to the assay of common sense, the social influence charge appears rather as an appeal to prejudice than as something worthy of serious attention. The term is too vague and indefinite for sober analysis. Under critical examination it melts away like frost on a window pane. As a factor in legislation it is highly humorous. Social influence will be about as much of a factor in shaping the tariff bill as Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. But it will impress people at a distance who do not stop to examine the matter and who imagine that social influence exercises some occult dominion over the wills and minds of Senators and Congressmen.

In reality it does not amount to a hill of beans at Washington—not at least with men who have votes to deliver. It loosens the tongues of a good many whose inducement in talk counts for little. But as a factor of efficiency it is no better than moonshine.

As Jere Knode Cook and Floretta Whaley have at last been legally married, let us hope they and their noisome amour will cease to be the subject of newspaper gossip. Mrs. Cook finally got a divorce from her recreant husband and left him free to marry his paramour. To give him his due, Cook stuck to the girl like a man and wedded her the moment he was at liberty to do so. But the story of his shameful betrayal of his wife and seduction of the young girl whom he has just married has been repeated more than enough in the press. It is time to draw a veil over the Cooks and their doings, for they are never mentioned without a reference to the salacious scandal which originally brought them into notoriety. Let us draw the mantle of decency over their escapade, the mantle of charity over their subsequent conduct and the cloak of silence over their efforts to rehabilitate themselves in the eyes of society. They have been sufficiently punished for their misdeed, and as long as they lead quiet and blameless lives they should be free from prying and prurient

THE TRIPLE JINX

The Foreign Conquest of New England.

The woman killed in the Ipswich labor riot was named Paudoulou. Others injured were named Paraskovas, Kalvas, Paganus and Jorekopulus. All these are Greek names. Their recurrence is significant of the change that has taken place in the industrial population of Massachusetts in the lifetime of the present generation. In the Lawrence mill strike Italian, Polish and Greek names were those most frequently encountered. Among them were Syrian and Slavic names. It appears that the nations of eastern and southern Europe furnish the most of the mill operatives in New England. In sections of Massachusetts Poles are displacing the English-speaking population in the rural districts. Farmers of the old Puritan stock are selling out and moving away to the cities or the Western States, and a different breed is occupying the land. Even the French Canadians are scarcely able to hold their own against the grinding thrift of the Poles. As the old inhabitants dwindle away the local trade passes into the hands of foreigners. Poles, Greeks, Slavonians and Italians do the business. The Protestant religion is undergoing the same decline, for the Poles, Italians and the Austrian Slavonians are Roman Catholics, as are the French Canadians, and the change in the racial composition of the population ushers in a religious revolution. Boston is Irish and Catholic. In its ancient citadel Puritan Protestantism is surrendering the field to adherents of the Roman church.

Twenty Years Ago Today

Chris Evans, the second of the two famous bandits has been caught hiding on a small farm near Visalia. He is badly wounded. The big struggle will now come over the $11,200 reward, many men taking a prominent part in the capture. The Alameda Board of Trustees is considering a plan to recover the marsh land on the waterfront by means of a bulkhead. The City of Oakland is planning a new church to be constructed in the vicinity of the university. Alameda county will send half a carload of cherries to the World's Fair immediately, to be part of the California fruit exhibit. A building in the sweat shop district in New York is on fire and three are reported killed, with half a dozen seriously injured. The city authorities will investigate, the fire escapes being useless after a few minutes. Miss Bertha Easton of West Oakland leaves soon for several weeks' stay at the Sea Beach Hotel, Santa Cruz. Mrs. R. J. Smith has returned from Vallejo. Miss Halie Sheffield has returned from the mountains. Fred M. Campbell, Miss Campbell and Miss Kate A. Campbell of this city reached the World's Fair recently after a brief Eastern trip.

JAPANESE BEAR BURDEN

Japan may be expected to press her protest against the objectionable anti-alien legislation in California with all the art of uniform diplomacy, but, however proud and confident she may be of her strength and ability to do injury to American interests, she is not in a position to contemplate a costly war with any degree of complacency. The revenues of Japan for the year 1912-13 are estimated at about $335,000,000, secured in part by a burdensome system of taxation, and are inadequate to meet the general governmental expenses and provide for naval and war improvements to the extent that is desired in time of peace. The present government debt is $1,271,745,000, with annual interest and other charges of $70,577,000. To meet the necessities of the government, Japan is proposing a new taxation. Says the Wain Street Journal:

"Under the income tax amendment bill the income tax which is imposed upon ordinary partnerships is set aside among a number of persons starts at 4 per cent on an income not exceeding $2500 a year, and rises to no less than 22 per cent on war? No wonder the Japanese clearing-house says that such imposition will paralyze national progress, stimulate evasion and render industrial development impossible. The basis of all this is the incredible armament obsession. But even allowing that Japan has been able to keep up to some extent with the growth of armaments in other nations, how can she fight her fleet or her army, in a war with a first-class power, by an increase in a burden such as no other country has even been called upon to bear in modern times?—Nashville Democrat.

HAD A HUNCH SOMETHING WOULD HAPPEN TO HIM

"I just had a hunch that something would happen to me today," said Jack Stillane, bell boy, after he had fallen down the elevator shaft at the Hotel St. Mark this afternoon. Stillane is 19 years old and lives at Pacific Grove. He was treated at the Receiving Hospital for a severe laceration at the back of his head, bruises of the arms and legs.

a year. The income tax on property rises from 2.3 per cent on incomes of $500 to no less than $750 on incomes of $20,000 a year. Under the increase now made throwing the burden upon the supposedly rich after the socialistic manner of our proposed income tax, a corporation with an income of $2,500,000 will have to pay a tax of $230,000 and this terrific burden is borne by every stockholder, however small.

I such a tax is imposed upon the taxpayers of a poor country in times of peace what would it be in the event of

The police of the bay cities have been asked to search for Sture Lindblad, 14 years of age, son of a wealthy merchant of Point Richmond, who disappeared from his home June 2. The boy was fond of stories of sea adventures and it is feared he has stowed away on some ocean-going vessel.

F. C. Jackson, 2434 Bonner street, Berkeley, was severely burned about the face and hands and arms this morning as he flew back from an oil burner in the Barber Faving Company's plant. He was treated at the Receiving Hospital by Dr. Ervin.

PLAN BIG EVENT

TO AID CHURCH

East Oakland Music Lovers to Be Given Treat at Concert.

East Oakland will enjoy a musical treat Tuesday evening, June 24, when, at Melrose Central Hall, several of the best known musicians in the bay region will appear in a benefit concert under the auspices of the Melrose Baptist Church. Elaborate preparations for the event have been made by Rev. Franklin Archer, and the committee in charge, and a large crowd is expected to enjoy the evening's entertainment. Many reservations are already made, and more are to come in.

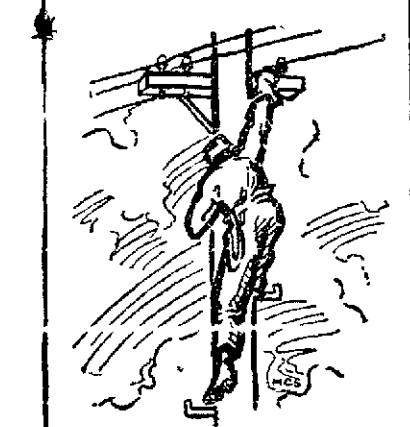

The management guarantees something out of the ordinary at the affair, and has been working on several extra attractions. These will include other features in addition to the musical numbers. The concert will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

NATIVE SONS ELECT NEW TEAM OFFICERS

Officers were named by Claremont parlor No. 24, N. S. G. W. at its last meeting, as follows: Past president, A. M. Stokes; president, J. Kavanagh; first vice-president, E. Horvath; second vice-president, Charles O'Connor; third vice-president, V. P. O'Connor; marshal, W. L. Foster; fiscal secretary, E. Cammichael; outside sentinel, P. Carroll; recording secretary, E. Thilinger; financial secretary, K. Ingraham; treasurer, Dr. J. F. Diddle; trustee, W. O'Connor.

On the evening of June 12 Claremont Parlor will be visited by Berkeley Parlor. The Good of the Order Committee has been given full charge of the social part of the evening and they promise a good time to all attending.

CHECKMAN ARRESTED.
FRESNO, June 13.—Max Muffer, formerly a miller in Los Angeles, but employed in a shop here during the last six weeks, was arrested today on charges of passing worthless checks in Los Angeles amounting to $300.

Many people cannot afford to have weak nerves. It would mean loss of livelihood. To everyone the loss of nervous energy is a serious matter. Every action uses up nervous energy which in health is steadily renewed by the blood.

As soon as the blood, for any reason, loses this power to constantly rebuild the nerves, a nervous breakdown threatens.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic for the blood and their tonic action strengthens weak nerves. They are sold by all druggists, fifty cents per box, six boxes for $2.50 or direct by mail. The booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System," will be sent free upon request.

DRINKS OF WHUNG

GLASS AND DIES

Woman in Beauty Shop Makes Fatal Mistake: Takes Poison.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Drinking the contents of the wrong glass yesterday resulted fatally for Mrs. Marian Burgen, 34, who died at the Central Emergency hospital.

She was at the establishment of Dr. and Mrs. B. T. Burton, 1379 Geary street, taking a course of treatment. A solution of ether and cocaine and a glass of whiskey were together on a table behind Mrs. Burgen's chair and her failure to look at the contents cost her life.

She went to the Burton place Wednesday night and was sitting in her room yesterday afternoon reading. Her head aching, she took a small tablet and thought to follow it with a sip of whiskey. Without turning her head, she reached back to the table behind her, and called to Mrs. Burton in the next room.

Noticing the alarm in the woman's voice, Mrs. Burton hurried to the room and discovered a course of treatment. A solution of ether and cocaine and a glass of whiskey were together on a table behind Mrs. Burgen's chair and her failure to look at the contents cost her life.

Knowing the strength of the solution, Mrs. Burton became frightened and suggested an antidote at once. Mrs. Burgen was calm and laughed at the other woman's fears.

"I am feeling all right. If there are any bad effects, I will walk them off," she got up and paced the floor.

And while Mrs. Burton was laughing and trying to assure Mrs. Burton that she would be all right, the doctor's wife telephoned to Dr. Burton, whose offices are in the Pacific building. He went hurrying home, administered strychnine and ordered an emetic. An ambulance was summoned. By the time it arrived the woman was in agony. She was put into the ambulance, but when it arrived at the hospital she was dead.

EXPLORERS TELL

ARCTIC TORTURES

Germans Victims of Terrible Cold and Hunger on Their Trip.

TROMSOE, Norway, June 13.—Stories of terrible suffering are told by the survivors of the German Arctic expedition. The friction among the members of the expedition, which existed from the time they set out, continued among the survivors.

After the separation and disappearance of Dr. Dettmers, Dr. Mossers and others who had been delayed by the attack of frost bites, from which Dr. Ruediger suffered, the latter and Rave stayed in the hut while the others tried to reach Advent bay to get medical help. Ruediger and Rave remained in the hut for seven weeks without any news of aid coming to them. Their rations dwindled until they had but one meal a day of mildewed oats and salt meat.

Subsequently, in continuing the journey, Advent bay, they fell through the ice and the feet of Captain Ritscher were frozen. He finally reached Advent bay in a famished condition. Captain Ritscher was delirious and crawled on his hands and knees. The residents thought he and the dog were Polar bears. Two of the other three who started for the ship came through awful weather, and the third disappeared.

RUSSIAN RIVER ADDS VICTIM TO ITS TOLL

SANTA ROSA, June 13.—A San Francisco teacher, Miss Frances Erb, and a San Francisco route agent, E. Downes, were found dead in the waters of the Russian river yesterday. Miss Erb was found dead in her bed this morning when an attempt was made to awaken her. She had died during the night, and death was due to fatty degeneration of the heart. She was about 38 years of age.

Downes was route agent on a morning paper in San Francisco, and was drowned in the waters of Russian river while swimming. He and his two sons were spending a vacation at Rio Linda, and the two sons were in the water with their father when the fatality occurred.

The man was taken with cramps. His body had not been recovered at a late hour tonight, and a large number of persons are diving and grappling in the river for the remains.

WILL OF SEA CAPTAIN FILED FOR PROBATE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—The will of Captain William De Warr, 69 years old, and a master mariner, who died recently, was filed for probate today and leaves the entire estate, valued at $100,000, to Mrs. Martha Miner, a friend, of Everett, Washington.

RESTORES NEVADA LANDS.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—President Wilson has signed an order of restoration to the public domain of a large body of the coal lands in Nevada, Utah, Oregon and Goldfield. More than 7000 acres are involved.

FOR GAS IN YOUR STOMACH

The presence of gas in your stomach is what the physicians call nervous dyspepsia, and is not always brought about by over-eating or a bad stomach. More often it is caused from nervousness, worry, fright, grief, any sort of nerve tension. Peppermint, soda, etc., are valueless in this form of dyspepsia, except for temporary relief.

A real cure consists in quieting the nervous stomach, and the only remedy known for this today is BAALMANN'S GAS TABLETS. These peculiar tablets calm the nervous center of the stomach, prevent the formation of gas, bloating and gas-pressure around the heart.

BAALMANN'S GAS TABLETS tone your stomach and prompt the process of digestion in a natural way. Just begin today to treat and cure that nervous stomach of yours. All druggists sell BAALMANN'S GAS TABLETS for 50c, but be careful and insist on getting the

MARE ISLAND NOTES

MARE ISLAND, June 13.—Seven engines have been ordered to appear at Mare Island for examination for promotion to the rank of Lieutenant junior grade next week. Those who will take the tests are: Ensign Francis T. Chew, U. S. N.; Charles F. Best, U. S. N.; Sidney M. Kraus, U. S. N.; John L. McLaughlin, U. S. N.; William P. Monroe, U. S. N.; Richard K. Turner, U. S. N.; and Eugene E. Wilson, U. S. N.

Although it is two weeks since the navy officers recommended that the Carnegie Steel Company be awarded the contract to supply the steel for the tankers Kanawha and Maumee, the navy department has not yet made the award. Advices received here are to the effect that the papers will be signed this week. The construction work on the Kanawha is scheduled to commence September 1, and after she is completed the keel of the Maumee will be laid down.

Chief Radio Electrician C. F. Dunfee has been relieved of duty at Cordova station and has been succeeded by Chief Electrician A. B. Stein.

The board of labor employment issued orders for thirty laborers for the hull department yesterday.

Lieutenant Commander C. M. Tozer, U. S. N., has been ordered detached from duty at the naval academy on Saturday and is ordered to the Pacific coast to take command of the refrigerator ship Glacier.

A naval board has been ordered to convene at the navy yard to examine Manuel Reposo for a renewal of pension.

The bureau of steam engineering is preparing to have three tugs constructed for use at navy yards, one of which will be assigned to the local naval station, the other to the Bremerton navy yard and the third will be held in reserve.

Bids for the construction of the tugboats will be opened in Washington June 20.

Job orders for the rebuilding of the mine planter, Colonel Armstrong, amounting to $2500, were issued at the navy yard yesterday. Both the machinery and hull departments have received orders to have the vessel's repairs completed by the end of the month.

The officers of the local naval station have been requested to figure on the cost of installing a wireless outfit on the navy collier Nahshan. The yard bid will include the cost of installing a dynamo.

Authority was received at Mare Island to spend the sum of $22,500 in repairing and retubing the boilers of the torpedo boat Preble.

After July 1 the commissary store which has been opened at the marine barracks by Mrs. Emily Cutts for many years, will be conducted entirely by the navy.

What profits accrue from this venture will be turned over to the enlisted men. Indirectly, in the form of expenditures for athletics and amusements.

CHANGE IN TIME OF CREEK ROUTE BOATS

There will be a temporary change in time of Harbor Boats, applying between foot of Broadway, Oakland, and San Francisco. The boats leave both sides of the bay every 45 minutes, commencing 6 a. m. to 9 p. m. then every hour.

See Southern Pacific agents for additional information.

DANIELS SEES PLANS FOR BAY DRYDOCK

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels is much interested in the proposed Navy dry dock for San Francisco on the probability of a dry dock for the Pacific Coast. Painter showed Daniels blueprints and photographs of the bay and the best locations for a dock.

Members of the Navy advisory board were called in and discussed the situation. Daniels said he wanted the commercial organizations of San Francisco to have all data concerning the proposed dry dock ready for him when he visits the city next July.

Rear Admiral Sanford, chief of the bureau of yards and docks, is preparing a special report on the Pacific Coast dock situation, and probably will strongly recommend San Francisco as the location for the structure.

RHEUMATISM QUICKLY CURED.

"My sister's husband had an attack of rheumatism in his arm," writes a well known resident of Newton, Iowa. "I gave him a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment which he applied to his arm and on the next morning the rheumatism was gone."

For chronic muscular rheumatism you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. Sold by Osgood Bros. drug stores.

PHYSICIAN, IN ILL HEALTH. SUICIDE

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 13.—Despondent because of ill health, Dr. W. H. Parker yesterday committed suicide by shooting. He was graduated from the College of Medicine at the State University of Iowa in 1881 and for several years practiced at Mason City, Iowa. He was 61 years old.

"GUM DISEASE" CURED BY NEW METHOD. IS SAID

SACRAMENTO, June 13.—The discovery of a cure for gum disease, a fungoid growth which gradually does hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of damage to California citrus crops, was announced today from the office of the state horticulturist. Prof. H. S. Sawcett of Whittier is the discoverer.

Growers are indebted for the discovery. State Horticulturist Cook announced that Prof. Sawcett has demonstrated beyond a doubt that Bordeaux paste, a mixture of lime-copper sulphate and water will exterminate the gum pest.

Cook also declares that the gray rot and brown rot fungus which makes its appearance in the packing houses is none other than a variety of the gum disease, and can be combated successfully by the use of the Bordeaux cure.

Today's Beauty Recipes

By Miss D'Amille.

"A good and inexpensive corrective treatment for faulty complexion, sallowness, pimples or blotches, is easily made at home by dissolving an original package of mayonaise in a half-pint of water. Stop using powder and face creams and gently massage this mayonaise lotion over the face, neck and forehead each morning. It will remove sunburn, tan and freckles, and prevent the growth of hair. It makes the skin fresh and smooth, with the color of youth."

"The perfect shampoo is one that actually removes dandruff. When you can brush out dandruff scales the day after shampooing, your scalp has not been freed from the parasites that cause dandruff, brittle and falling hair. Mother's Shampoo is the best dandruff remover I know. It keeps the hair fluffy and full of life and color."

"Fragrant beauty and charm is often marred by superfluous hair. A sure, safe and speedy hair remover is made by mixing a little superfluous hair cream with on two minutes, wipe off, wash the skin, and the hair will be gone."

FRAT STUDENTS -KEEPING PLEDGE

Inducing Fraternities to Surrender Charters; Likely to Be Reinstated.

Officers of the High school fraternities whose members were expelled and suspended by the Board of Education in the past two weeks yesterday started work to induce other Greek letter organizations in the High school to give up their charters. This was declared yesterday when a number of the expelled youths waited on Superintendent A. C. Barker to assure him that whatever action the Board of Education may take they will keep their word as pledged at Wednesday night's meeting when the boys promised to cease fraternity activities if reinstated. The board promised at this time to reinstate them if they persuaded other fraternities to also disband.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 13.—That the rule of war were necessary to govern the coal strike-disturbed district of West Virginia was the conviction stated today by Congressman S. B. Avis, who was prosecuting attorney of Kanawha county when the strike began.

PANTAGES TO HAVE EXTRA ADDED FEATURES

Bothwell Browne will be the big extra feature to the regular Pantages bill for the week starting Sunday. Browne has a host of friends in Oakland, for it was here that he opened his original dancing academy and played an engagement of twenty consecutive weeks at a local theater, afterwards going to New York, where he scored an artistic success on Broadway.

HORSE FIRES REVOLVER.

STOCKTON, June 13.—Policeman Carroll was treated at the hospital for a bullet wound due to the kick of a horse. Carroll and his son were trying to bribe a fractious horse when it reared and his hoof struck Carroll's pocket, discharging his revolver and sending a bullet down the calf of the leg. The wound is not serious.

5000 STAR OF THE SEA PARISH WILL PICNIC

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Great preparations are being made by the 5000 members of the Star of the Sea parish, the Rev. Philip O'Ryan, pastor, for a picnic to be held tomorrow at Shellmound Park, in honor of the 25th anniversary of the parish. A splendid program has been prepared and a fine time is expected. A band of 20 pieces will play for the dance. Gaelic dancing will be a feature of the day and a select musical and literary program has been arranged. There will be handsome game and gate prizes.

LAWYER-EDITOR BEATEN.

FAIRFIELD, June 13.—Paul C. Harlan, lawyer and editor of the Enterprise, is recovering from a beating he received at the hands of A. E. Kerr, member of the board of trustees of the local grammar school. The trouble arose over an article in the Enterprise questioning the motives of Kerr and others.

HAVE IT MADE To Your Measure

You will get more pleasure out of your suit—more wear and more lasting comfort if you have it made to your measure.

It is foolish economy to be a "ready-made" man when you can have your suits made to measure for less money.

Not every tailor can afford to make you a suit to order for less than $30.00. But it is different at the House of Steinberg. Here FIFTEEN DOLLARS will get the best made to your measure suit of clothes that your money can buy.

Made-to-Measure Suits for $15 Worth fully $30.00 and more

You have a choice here of the finest kind of materials. Materials, that the average tailor considers good enough to charge from $30.00 to $40.00 for a made-to-measure suit. And our price is always uniform—always FIFTEEN DOLLARS for suits that are fully worth $30.00 and more.

The next time have your suit made to order—have it made by master tailors—at the House of Steinberg.

NOTICE!

We Call a Halt!

It again came to our notice yesterday by a customer, who upon learning the facts eventually decided upon buying an Autopiano Player Piano that a glib houses in an endeavor to sell another make of player piano claimed that his particular make of instrument was purchased generally by the United States Navy and the army. It was further boldly stated that Eilers' Music House had no right to claim that the Autopiano Player Piano was practically the exclusive player piano in satisfactory use upon the great Battle Ships. We feel it is due the Autopiano to publicly call a halt to such false claims.

We do not believe that any rubber tubed player piano will now pass the test of any Naval purchasing Board.

We find that rubber tubed player pianos deteriorate rapidly under the constantly varying climatic conditions to which player pianos at sea are subjected.

We claim that during the past seven years we have sold the Autopiano to practically every Battleship, Cruiser and Naval Vessel in Pacific waters and have also equipped the palatial Pacific Mail liners and the magnificent new Matson Navigation Co. vessels now building. We claim that when the 30th Regiment of the U. S. A. transferred to the north it carried along not less than 20 Autopianos; all purchased of Eilers Music House after exhaustive test. This being no doubt the largest single purchase of Player pianos on record. We claim that we have accepted from the Navy in many instances toward part payment of new Autopianos practically EVERY MAKE OF PLAYER PIANO ever made, among them the widely advertised Pianola Pianos, Apollo player pianos, Cecilian player pianos, Angelus player pianos, etc., etc., all because such instruments did not stand the stress of service.

We claim that there are today more than 25 Autopianos to any other one make in daily use upon the Navy in Pacific waters alone and also in the Army.

We have the positive proof for each and every statement made herein, and if any more such misstatement of fact, calculated to mislead the public and to depreciate the high standing of the Autopiano player pianos is again authentically brought to our notice we shall expose the name of the unscrupulous salesman as well as the particular house he endeavors to represent in a public warning. We feel it is due to every reader of this paper to know that in spite of all assertions to the contrary the Autopiano ranks undisputedly supreme, and that it is sold on the little profit per piano merchandising plan of the Eilers Music Houses.

Ask to see the wonderful list of thousands of satisfied owners of the Autopiano—it is truly wonderful, a list of names almost a half block long. Don't be deceived by clap-trap devices, pointers, empassizers, etc., which are frequently found attached to inferior makes of player pianos in order to effect their sale. Such devices now are obsolete.

It's better to buy a genuine Autopiano player than later on to have to exchange for one.

STRATTON DEFIES ORDERS OF BOARD

Issues Defi in Form of Demand on Surveyor of Customs.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—The war between Customs Collector Stratton and the Board of Harbor Commissioners was reopened yesterday by the Collector issuing an order to Customs Surveyor Duncan E. McKinlay to disregard the opinion of Assistant United States District Attorney Thomas H. Seligman, and to exclude from the customs docks all transfer, baggage and express representatives other than such as may be designated by the steamship companies and the Collector. This action was taken yesterday when the tourist steamer Cleveland arrived from a round-the-world trip, on which occasion the Harbor Board demanded that all expressmen should be admitted to solicit for trade, and charged that the Collector, by his action, was fostering a monopoly of baggage transfer privileges.

Collector Stratton yesterday: "The Surveyor of Customs: Sir—In a recent opinion written by Assistant District Attorney Thomas H. Seligman he appears to have decided that the Harbor Commissioners and certain jurisdiction over the customs docks. In any event, they are to be the judge as to who are or who are not to be admitted as strictly pertaining to customs matters."

"This opinion will be ignored and you will strictly enforce jurisdiction over the orders from the department at Washington to do this thing, the department following the decisions of the Federal courts upon the question. You will, therefore, permit within any customs inclosure the representatives of the duly authorized bonded carriers, as heretofore, and further permit entrance to the representatives of any transfer, baggage or express company when the same is nominated by the respective steamship companies concerned and exclude all other solicitors unless authorized by this office."

WAITRESSES ARE FIRE FIGHTERS

Muir Woods Tavern Scene of Blaze; Place Badly Burned.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—Only efficient and indefatigable work of a hastily organized "bucket brigade" composed of two waitresses and a fireman, and two men in pajamas prevented a fire which had completely destroyed Muir Woods Tavern yesterday evening from developing into a forest fire that might have claimed every stick of timber and every residence on Mt. Tamalpais.

Realizing that with their meager water supply and lack of apparatus they could not hope to save the tavern proper, the "fire-ladies" and their two male companions surrounded the burning building and confined their efforts to preventing the dried grass from carrying the flames to the other buildings and the thickly timbered Muir woods near by.

Muir Woods Tavern was the property of the Mill Valley and Mt. Tamalpais Scenic Railway company and was known as the "Half-way House." The loss is $25,000, which includes the art collection of the company, among which were a dozen celebrated paintings of California scenes. Incendiaries are suspected.

President Charles P. Runyon of the railroad company announced yesterday that construction work on a new and much more elaborate tavern will be begun as soon as the material can be assembled.

NEW LINE PROJECTED BY NORTHERN MEN

YREKA, Cal., June 12.—Delegates from Humboldt and Siskiyou counties, Cal., and Klamath county, Ore., agreed here yesterday to incorporate the Humboldt, Siskiyou and Klamath Railroad Company to operate a line between Eureka and Klamath Falls, following the Klamath river, a distance of 350 miles. A committee of 9 was appointed to file articles of incorporation, and to raise $55,000 at once for initial expenses. L. F. Putter of Eureka presided.

CREAMERY BURNS. DES MOINES, Ia., June 12.—The plant of the Beatrice Creamery Company of Chicago was destroyed by fire today. The loss is $50,000, half covered by insurance.

U. S. APPEALS FOR RAILWAY EXPERTS

Gigantic Corps Needed for the Appraisal of Railroad Properties.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—With the gigantic task ahead of it of appraising the physical property of the railroads of the United States, the Interstate Commerce Commission today sent out an appeal for expert assistants. Through the civil service commission dates have been set for the examination of men acquainted with railroad operation and construction and who aspire to enter the service of the government.

The Interstate Commerce Commission wants a large staff of structural, electrical, mechanical, railway signal and civil engineers; inspectors of car equipment and motive power and architects. The salaries will range from $1000, the lowest, to $4000, but as the work will be mainly done away from Washington, expenses will be allowed while on duty.

The civil service commissioners expect a general response to its call and has fixed July 21 as the closing date on which applications will be received by it.

MEETS WIFE AND ALLEGED AFFINITY; IS VICTIM OF BULLET

COMPANION OF WOMAN FIRES

SHOT

San Franciscan Meets Spouse and Stranger Arm in Arm on Street.

Mrs. Wm. Mathews Strikes the Revolver, Saving Life of Husband.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Coming face to face with his wife in the company of another man, walking away from the family dwelling William Mathews, stationer at 2470 Bush street entered a protest late at night and was shot. His alleged assailant, Edward S. Knox, a clerk of 1021 Laguna street, who he claims is Mrs. Mathews' affinity, was arrested at daylight this morning and is charged at the city prison with assault with intent to commit murder.

The encounter took place at the corner of Turk and Laguna streets. Mrs. Mathews was walking arm in arm with Knox. For a moment the trio stood silent. Then Mathews began an arraignment of Knox, who he accused of stealing his wife. Sharp words were exchanged. One word followed another and finally Mathews determined to teach Knox a lesson. As he approached Knox drew a revolver aimed it at Mathews' head and pulled the trigger. Had not Mrs. Mathews intervened murder would have resulted.

BULLET MISSES HEAD.
The woman saved the weapon to one side and the bullet pierced Mathews' ear. The police were notified and Mathews taken to the hospital. Detectives Harrison and Lemon found Knox in his room. He denied the shooting but the pistol was discovered where it had evidently been thrown out of the window.

Later in Police Judge Crust's court he was sentenced to the city prison for 30 days.

Heroism of Newspaper Man Touched New York World That Employed Him.

STAMFORD Conn., June 13.—One additional death was added to the list of those who were victims of the collision of the first and second sections of the Springfield Express here late yesterday, making the total six.

DEAD IN WRECK.
Mrs. Edward J. Kelly, Windrop, Mass.
Everett Halsey Woodruff, Flushing N. Y.
Dr. Harmon G. Howe, Hartford, Conn.
Frank K. Confield, Springfield, Mass.
Mrs. W. H. Seeler, New Haven.
Gregory Hume, New York City.

The woman's body which was not identified last night is that of Mrs. W. H. Seeler, wife of the manager of the Industrial Bureau of the New Haven railroad. The seven injured passengers are at the Stamford Hospital. The inquiry into the collision was begun before daybreak. Coroner Phelan of Bridgeport formally opening an inquest, while independent inquiries by the railroad companies and the public utilities commission were also launched.

WANTED STORY SENT.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Gregory T. Humes of this city, who died today in the hospital at Stamford, Conn., retained above all his sense of news when he was crushed yesterday in the wreck which caused the death of five persons and the injury of about 20 more on the New York New Haven & Hartford railroad near the Stamford station.

Humes, a reporter on the staff of the World, was returning from a visit to his mother at Pine Orchard Conn., and was a passenger in the Pullman car which was telescoped by the electric engine of a train behind him. Humes was hurled out of the wreck, suffering from a crushed pelvis and compound fractures of both ankles as well as painful injuries, he said to those who were carrying him.

TELLS STORY OF WRECK.

NEW YORK, June 13.—A graphic story of the wreck was told by Allan A. Warfield of Washington, who was injured in the wreck but who was able to come to this city.

WILSON FAVORS CODORNICES PARK

Berkeley Councilman Believes Hillside Property Should Be Improved.

BERKELEY, June 13. — Codornices park will be transformed from a rubbish site to an inviting picnic place if the plans of Councilman John A. Wilson materialize. He intends to ask the city council to appropriate funds for the work that the citizens of the city may have a new and pretty park to visit in the future.

The park was leased by the city from of the month since it has been leased, however, few improvements have been made and it is, therefore, seldom visited by Berkeley people.

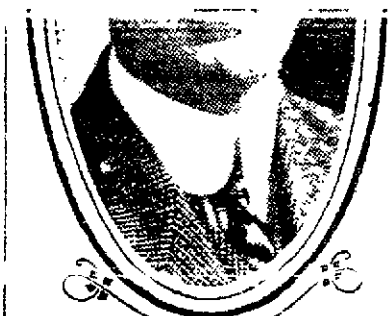

"It is not necessary for people to go far from home to enjoy an outing," declared Wilson. "We should improve this park and make it into a real inviting place for those who wish to spend Sunday out of doors. The Euclid avenue car line passes through the park and a fine fare would carry most Berkeleys to the park."

PIONEER OF BERKELEY SUCCEUMS TO ILLNESS

BERKELEY, June 13. — Following an illness of several weeks' duration, James A. Farrell, 1219 Francisco street, passed away yesterday. He was a pioneer of this city and had been engaged in the business of housemoving for many years. He was born in Pennsylvania 46 years ago, coming to California when young. He was a member of the Riggers and Stereographers' Union. A wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Farrell, and the following children survive: John F. James A. Lawrence and Mary E. Farrell. Requiem high mass will be celebrated at the church of St. Joseph's Catholic church tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. Interment will be at Sunset View cemetery.

NEW SORORITY HOUSE.
BERKELEY, June 13. — The Pi Beta Phi sorority of the University of California will soon have a new $12,000 home. Work on the structure, which will be erected at Channing way and College avenue, will begin soon. Plans have already been drawn by Hutchinson Brothers.

AD MEN CLOSE THEIR CONVENTION ELECT W. WOODHEAD PRESIDENT

FRED L. HALL.

WOULD RAISE PAY OF POLICE AND FIREMEN

BERKELEY, June 13. — Provisions were made at a meeting of the city council here today for the raising of salaries of the members of both the police and fire departments. The raise in salaries for the fire department will aggregate $400 per month, while that of the police department will total $200 for the same period.

In the fire department two deputy chiefs will get an advance of $15 and six captains, one steam engineer, one mechanic and thirty-two firemen will get advances of $10.

Two detectives will get $15 additional, three sergeants $10, one bailiff $10, and twenty-five patrolmen $10 advance in the police department. These advances will become effective within the next thirty days.

Fred L. Hall Elected to Directors' Board of National Association.

BALTIMORE, June 13. — The ninth annual convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs finished its business today and adjourned to meet next year at Toronto. William Woodhead of San Francisco was elected president; Walter B. Cherry of Syracuse, N. Y., vice-president; P. S. Flores of Indianapolis, secretary (re-elected), and T. D. La Quette of Des Moines.

Among the board of directors of the national association is Fred L. Hall of Oakland, who has played a prominent part in the convention as well as in the election of Woodhead.

Today the following telegram was received by Woodhead from the Oakland Advertising Association:

"William Woodhead, Convention Hall, Associated Advertising Clubs of Oakland Advertising Association congratulates you as the president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America and thanks you for your successful efforts at the head of the Pacific coast delegation in securing such strong representation in the national organization for the Pacific coast."

"W. F. D. BROWN, Secretary."

Yesterday the presentation of reports from commissions and committees on matters affecting the future of the organization was the principal feature of the day. The board of directors elected an executive committee to serve for the affiliated clubs during the next year. The member for the Pacific coast division is John Renfro, Los Angeles.

The Boston millage banner went to the Class Advertising Club of San Francisco, which sent five of its eighteen members to the convention.

NEWSPAPER MEN ADJOURN.

CINCINNATI, June 13. — After electing officers the International Circulation Managers' Association convention adjourned yesterday. The following officers were elected:

President, Sydney D. Long, Wichita, Kan.; first vice-president, A. E. McKinnon, New York City; second vice-president, J. M. Cheever, Montreal; secretary and treasurer, Joseph L. Taylor, Grand Rapids, Mich.

The cast is as follows:

Scire Wright, justice of the peace... Benjamin Scoggs, bailiff... James Nichols, Attorney... Edward Nixon, Abigail Plummer, plaintiff... Hilda Johnson, John Goodman, counsel for plaintiff... Art Erickson, Joe Sharpe, counsel for defendant... Frank Carlson, Mrs. Alozo Highty Tighty... Helena Enge, Witnesses—Jane Walsh, Lela Ball, Lucy Webber, Bertha Ahl, Bridget O'Rourke, Alice Bolas, Mrs. Charley Plummer, Emma Enge, Mary Love, Petronella Candido, Amelia Old Girl, Eva Carlson.

FLAG HONORED GIVE PROGRAMS

R. C. STAATS.

REPORT MUCH SUCCESS IN CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN

BERKELEY, June 13. — The officials in charge of the clean up campaign which is being waged here, report much success. The war against weeds and rubbish will be waged here for another week, at least, unless citizens in all sections unite in cleaning up their property at once. It is hoped that at the end of this time that the city will take on the aspect of a "spotless town."

The detail of 20 patrolmen named to conduct the campaign and the street department report that citizens in all sections of the city are cleaning up their vacant lots and sidewalk areas. It is hoped that the work will proceed in each a way that it will not be found necessary to make any arrests. Several property owners who have thus far refused to clean up their property have been threatened with arrest.

The street department hopes to have all vacant lots cleaned by the owners without being compelled to have the work done and the cost made a lien on the property.

ALAMEDA EAGLES PIONIC.

ALAMEDA, June 13. — A group of Eagles will picnic at Grand canyon, near Richmond, Sunday. There will be game and prize, dance and other amusements. Drill teams will be present and live exhibitions of all kinds.

ALAMEDA, June 13. — Flag day exercises were held in all the classes of the various public schools this morning when patriotic programs followed the raising of the flag.

BRIDE IS 63 YEARS OF AGE; GROOM 59

BERKELEY, June 13. — Edmund Crossfield, a widower, 55 years of age, eloped with the sister of his former wife, Mrs. Matilda Crossfield, 65 years of age, and the couple were quietly wedded yesterday afternoon in Oakland. They are now en route to Sacramento on their honeymoon.

Fifteen years ago, Mrs. Louise Tyler Crossfield, wife of Edmund Crossfield, passed away leaving four sons and three daughters. Fifteen months ago, Richard Crossfield died and left his widow, Mrs. Matilda Tyler Crossfield, and three children, one son and two daughters.

The world proved a lonesome one to both Crossfield and Mrs. Crossfield, and they decided that to seek out the bright spots they should become one, deciding to be married tomorrow.

A clergyman in Oakland yesterday and were married, much to the surprise of the children, who had planned a home for the mother and daughters of Crossfield, who resides at 1612 Kalms avenue, this city, state that they will yet have an opportunity to shower their father and his bride with old shoes, for they intend to tender the couple a reception on their return home.

Crossfield is a boss painter and well known here. The couple will make their future home at the Crossfield residence.

URGES NEED OF NEW HIGH SCHOOL

BERKELEY, June 13. — Principal C. L. Biedenbach of the local high school, in his annual open letter to parents of pupils, urges the need of a new high school building. He declares that the present structure is in adequate to house the rapidly increasing number of students. He also discusses plans for the introduction of a department of physical culture.

He says, in part:

"The student body is concentrating its efforts upon the development of a series of championship teams, a pernicious thing in itself, and nothing whatever is being done for the physical welfare of those pupils who need it most. There are no playgrounds, no gymnasium, and no teachers of physical education. The boys who are athletically inclined get their exercise for themselves by trespassing on employees of the university.

"The rest get nothing unless they happen to belong to the Y. M. C. A. The girls have not had even that opportunity and so have received no directed exercise whatever unless their parents happened to be sufficiently interested to take up the matter individually, and wealthy enough to stand the expense of private instruction.

"It, therefore, gives me great pleasure to announce that this aspect of our present condition is going to be improved. The board of education has decided to

with the opening of the coming year.

ALAMEDA, June 13. — Benjamin Swanson, aged 30, son of the late Alexander Swanson, passed away suddenly at his home in San Francisco Tuesday evening. Swanson was well known to a large number of friends in Alameda. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mary Swanson.

The funeral will be held at the chapel of St. Olaf cemetery tomorrow morning.

AWARDS CONTRACT FOR BOATHOUSE

Contract was awarded for the erection of the boathouse at the Willows on Lake Merritt to Van Sant, Houghton & Co. by the board of park directors this morning on bids received yesterday afternoon. The contract price is $28,250. All the other bids were over $30,000 and were offered by C. Christensen Bros., the State Construction Company, Schellley, Hostawaser and Padgriff and O. Monson Company.

Work is to be commenced July 1. The park commission has $30,000 available and the cost of the boathouse, including the architect's fee, will come within this appropriation. The building will be two stories, reinforced concrete and placed upon concrete piles. The Willows pumping station will be an integral part of the new structure.

SILK STRIKERS GIVEN NEW VENUE

Juries Will Be Drawn From County Adjoining Paterson.

TRENTON, N. J., June 13.—Supreme Court Justice Minton made an order today granting to the Paterson silk mill strikers the right, when arrested, of trial by a jury from an adjoining county. The trial, however, will be held in this county.

Most of the most prominent leaders of the strike movement are yet to be tried for inciting to riot, including William Elwood, Carlo Tresca, Adolph Lussig, Hannah Silbermann and Elizabeth Gurley Flynn. Counsel for the strike leaders asked the supreme court to order a change of venue on the ground they could not get a fair trial in Paterson.

Rheumatic Blood is Whole Story

Sciatica, Lumbago, and Dreaded Articular Rheumatism Cured.

You Will Feel Like an Acrobat After Using S. S. S.

There is a host of pills, powders, tablets and what-not for rheumatism, but they all lack the first essential to being a natural medicine. To begin with, rheumatism is simply a name given to designate a variety of pains, and can only be reached by irrigating the entire blood supply with a naturally assimilative antidote. True, the pains may be eased with narcotics or the acids may be neutralized for the time being. But such methods merely temporize and do not even lead to a cure. There is but one standard rheumatism remedy, and is sold in all drug stores under the name of S. S. S. It contains only pure vegetable elements and is absolutely free of mercury, iodine or potash or arsenic, and has proved a wonder for every form of rheumatism.

The recoveries of all types of rheumatism by the use of S. S. S. is a fine tribute to the natural efficacy of this remarkable medicine, for it is assimilated just as naturally. Just as specifically, and just as well ordered as the most acceptable, most palatable and most readily digested food. Do not fail to get a bottle of S. S. S. today. You will be astonished at the results. If your rheumatism is of such a nature that you would like to consult a specialist confidentially, write to The Medical Dept., The Swift Specific Co., 137 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

ROYAL OAKS DRILL TEAM WINS THE FIRST PRIZE BLUE AND WHITES STAR IN ROSE FESTIVAL

HOW SOME OF THE ROYAL OAKS LOOK TO THE CARTOONIST AT PORTLAND IS SHOWN HERE IN DRAWINGS TAKEN FROM THE PORTLAND TELEGRAM. THESE MEN HAVE PLAYED A PROMINENT PART IN FESTIVITIES GOING ON IN THE NORTHERN CITY AND YESTERDAY HELPED CARRY OFF FIRST HONORS FOR THE WORK OF THE ROYAL OAKS DRILL TEAM.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 13.—The Royal Oaks of Oakland, Cal., have taken first prize for the best drilled marching club at the Rose Festival. The Radiators of Eugene, Oregon, came second. Under the leadership of Leslie F. Rice, Fred E. Reed and K. A. Millican, the Oakland organization gave an exhibition of fancy drilling at the contest which won storms of plaudits. Attired in white, with blue hosiery, neckties and socks, and white shoes and hats, the Oakland delegation put up a striking appearance. They were remarkably well drilled and their work made a decided hit. This prize is one of the highest honors at the carnival.

Pasadena took first prize for the outdoor entries. San Francisco ran second. Oakland also won a prize for the auto entered in the big parade by the Oakland Commercial Club.

Rose-crested, rose-crowned, flower-wreathed and flower-hidden motorcars, to the number of many hundred, sped their course through 25 miles of Portland's crowd-massed thoroughfares. Conservative estimates place the number of roses at the Rose Festival at 1,000,000 and the value of the cars in line at close to $1,500,000.

COAST REPRESENTED.
It was without question the most notable of all the motor pageants that have gone before in Festival times. Not only from the standpoint of elaborate embellishments but more especially because the entire Pacific Coast, from almost the Mexican border to far-away British Columbia, on the north, was represented in the array of rapidly-moving cars.

Pleasure cars entered by individuals view with huge floats and trucks entered by clubs and organizations in the gaudy of their floral colors. Not only were the vast bulk of the entries handsomely bedecked, but there were close to 2000 men, women and children, all in holiday attire, occupying the long-reaching vista of pageantry. Efforts in almost every instance were made to have the garb of the motor occupants blend in harmony to the color tones of flowers and draperies.

Oakland, Pasadena, Seattle, Victoria, B.C., Vancouver, Wash., and several other outside cities had exceptionally striking decorative effects in the line and each was anxious to carry off the prize for foreign-entered cars. Seattle, whose car typified the Golden Potlatch and its Tillamook, sent over an express car half filled with decorative material while Oakland's Royal Oaks brought with them a full carload of native California flowers and greenery to dress up its official entry.

"A Night in Rosaria," one of the striking novelties of the entire celebration, was held Wednesday night, under the direction of the United Artisans. Other fraternal orders assisted, and the celebration offered a brilliant scene. A big parade was one of the features. To-morrow (Thursday) the parade will continue and there is nothing in the air or sky to indicate that ideal conditions will not continue to the grand finale tomorrow.

President Ralph W. Hoyt of the Rose

Festival issued a request that no serpentine floats be entered for the parade on Saturday night. Two of the floats in the floral parade were literally connected to serpentine and the floats being intricately wired and charged with electricity, the danger of fire is always imminent. The flimsy construction and the garb of the women and girls occupying the floats accentuate the peril. So far as the other parades are concerned, there can be no such danger, and more or less liberty with serpentine may be tolerated.

With every hour of the time taken early morning until late tonight from out one form or another of amusement and entertainment for the monster crowds, the seventh annual Rose Festival is swarming toward its climax. The well-filled program has been reeled off in a machine-like order and the crowds have been continuing to swarm into the city for the stellar features of today and tomorrow—the two biggest days of the entire playtime season. The weather has been almost beyond compare, and there is nothing in the air or sky to indicate that ideal conditions will not continue to the grand finale tomorrow.

POET-LAUREATE GETS $350 YEARLY AND 'BUTT OF SAC'

LONDON, June 13.—The poet laureateship, which is vacant owing to the death of Alfred Austin, carries a salary of $350 a year, with an allowance of $135 in lieu of "a butt of sac." Premier Asquith enlightened the members of the House of Commons last night with this information when Arthur Lynch, the Irish member for West Clare, made inquiry as to the salary, perquisites and privileges which were attached to the office. The premier admitted that he did not know the exact duties of the post.

Swift McNell, another Irish member who is known as the wit of the house, suggested seriously the revival of the post of king's jester. Another member promptly suggested McNell for the post.

Captain Lynch wound up the discussion by asking whether a butt of sac was not an intolerable deal of sac for a ha'porth of poetry.

ARKANSAS RIVER CLAIMS ONE VICTIM

PUEBLO, Colo., June 13.—Four hours after leaving Pueblo in a yawl boat which they built in their back yard for the purpose of floating down the Arkansas and Mississippi rivers to their home in Louisiana, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith were thrown into the treacherous waters of the Arkansas one mile east of Avondale yesterday afternoon when the craft became entangled in brush and capsized.

Mrs. Smith was caught by the clinging weed and pulled under, drowning, while her husband reached the bank in a semi-conscious condition, only after a fierce battle against the raging currents.

The boy used a small rifle which he did not know was loaded.

MRS. ROSS, MARRIED SIX MONTHS, SEEK DIVORCE

STOCKTON, June 13.—Alleging extreme cruelty, Mrs. Nellie A. Ross, well known in local society circles, filed a divorce complaint against J. R. Ross, son of G. McMillan, a prominent mining magnate, who was a candidate for Congress at the last election. While neither of the principals will divulge any information, it is known that Ross is charged with conducting himself in such a manner as to cause his wife great mental anguish, and it is hinted that he will contest the case.

Mrs. Ross was formerly Miss Nellie A. Logan, and she comes of a family prominent in both social and financial circles. Her marriage last December was one of the society events of the winter. The betrothal was said to have occurred early in the spring.

CHARLEY TAFT WINS NUMBER OF PRIZES

WATERTOWN, Conn., June 13.—Charley Taft, son of the former President, today won the principal prize in a contest for the Taft School Association, the member of the senior class who had shown the greatest all-round athletic and scholarship ability. He also won the cup offered by the Taft School Alumni Association of Yale to the leading scholar of the senior class.

Just Think This Over Are We Right?

The HUB is determined to set the pace in the clothing field.

Since we announced and demonstrated our wonderful value-giving, there has been a regular stampede among all competitors. The Hub comes to you with this definite scientific proposition: WE WANT YOUR TRADE. We are able to sell you clothes for that any other house in the city could easily sell at a greatly advanced figure.

We are able to offer this remarkable low price because we operate on the most daringly small profit margin ever attempted in the clothing field.

We stake our hopes of profit not on large earnings on small sales, but small earnings on large sales.

We want volume. We are willing to sell from 300 to 350 suits a week and make only $1 profit on a suit.

And that's why we make this proposition.

GRASSHOPPERS NOW STANISLAUS VISITORS

SACRAMENTO, June 13.—Stanislaus was added to the list of California counties affected by the grasshopper here yesterday, when the county horticulturist reported to State Horticulturist Cook that several farmers had complained of an attack by the pest. Dr. Cook asserts that while grasshoppers are still giving much trouble in various localities, farmers and fruit growers are combating the "hopper" hordes successfully.

MRS. CHARLES C. COOK, WHO CELEBRATED HER CRYSTAL WEDDING ANNIVERSARY THIS WEEK.

FRIDAY, the 13th, seems to have worked its spell on the social activities of the day. In spite of the general impression that superstition has received its death blow in this age, a perceptible hush is noticed, but after the brief breathing spell of a day the end-of-the-season swing will go on as usual, and the beginning of the real vacation months.

The next few days are those of Miss Mary Genevieve Fitzpatrick and D. Roy McNell, which will be solemnized tomorrow in Sacred Heart Church in San Francisco. Tuesday evening, Miss Alice Judson and Edward C. Street, on the same evening, and Miss Beatrice Steiman and J. V. Erast, on Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's mother in Alameda. Other social dates have been almost entirely put aside for the present to make way for the weddings of the bridal month.

AFTERNOON TEA.
Miss Anna and Miss Louise Street entertained yesterday afternoon with a tea in honor of Miss Alice Judson, who is to become the bride of Edward Street next Tuesday evening, at their home on Myrtle street. More than twenty young ladies were invited for the afternoon. The table decorations were pink roses and dainty maiden hair ferns.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Cook entertained Wednesday evening at their home in honor of their crystal anniversary. Many handsome gifts of cut glass and crystal were received by the couple. A feature of the evening was the mock marriage ceremony, followed by dancing and a wedding supper. The cake decorations were in pink and green, a large bell being suspended over the center of the table. Among the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. E. Friedlander, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. F. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Norman G. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. F. and Mrs. B. N. Fabin and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Belvel.

WEDDED IN CHURCH.
Miss Virginia Pinkston, daughter of Mrs. Wallace D. Pinkston, was wedded to Laurence Sherman Jennings of Berkeley at a simple ceremony in the Fruitvale Congregational church last evening. The service was read by the Rev. Edw. A. Joy and the only attendants were two little cousins of the bride, who acted as flower girls. Pink and white sweet peas and palms decorated the church, where an informal reception was held at the altar after the wedding service. The bride wore the usual white satin and veil with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white and orange flowers. The bridesmaids were Misses L. and M. and the groomsmen were Messrs. J. and K. The wedding was celebrated in the evening.

QUIET WEDDING.
Owing to the illness of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. E. Wilson, the first of two weddings which are planned in the Wilson family, was simple and informal. The bride was Miss Gladys Amber Wilson, who was wedded to Charles Fender last evening at the home of Rev. W. C. Spencer, pastor of the Twenty-third Avenue Baptist church. The only witnesses were the bride's sisters and her brother, Leslie Wilson, whose betrothal to Ethel Ranker was announced with the Wilson-Fender engagement. The couple will reside in Berkeley after a short honeymoon. The other wedding which will take place later are those of Miss Wilson and Miss Grace Jones, Miss Leah Wilson and Lester Ranker and Leslie Wilson and Miss Ethel Ranker.

ARRIVES FOR WEDDING.
Mrs. Hugh J. McIsaac has arrived from her home in Washington, D. C., to be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. McNell of Claremont, for a month or so. The young matron came west to attend the wedding of her brother, D. Roy McNell, and Miss Mary Genevieve Fitzpatrick of San Francisco, which will take place tomorrow evening across the bay. Mrs. McIsaac was formerly Miss Vera McNell.

VISITING SPRINGS.
Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Whitehead of Piedmont are among those who are enjoying the week at Napa Soda Springs. Among the other visitors from the bay cities are Mr. and Mrs. Rollo E. Fay and Miss Eleanor Fay of Berkeley, Mrs. A. H. Small of the same city, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Spain of Oakland.

AFFAIRS FOR BRIDE-ELECT.
In spite of a declaration of social complacency before her wedding, Miss Vera Fender has found it quite an impossibility to refuse all the social favors which her friends are eager to shower upon her. Hence the announcement of several delightful affairs in the coming week. Miss Vera Fender will be a luncheon hostess for Miss Painter on Tuesday at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. Carroll Ewing, in Vernon Heights. She will be assisted by her mother and her sister, Miss Lella Ewing, and her guests will include about a dozen ladies. Miss Vera Fender will give a luncheon across the bay Wednesday afternoon, her guests being the members of the bridal party, who will later enjoy the matinee.

ARRIVE FROM SOUTH SEAS.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lacey Brayton arrived home on the steamship Moana yesterday after a stay of several months at Tahiti, where they were lavishly entertained in the hospitable style of the south seas during the early summer months. They took with them their young children, and the whole family enjoyed a gypsy-like outing in far Papete.

DATE SET FOR NUPTIALS.
Miss Edna Hickok of Alameda has chosen the date for her wedding to Frederick Johnson for June 24. It will take place in Christ Episcopal church of Alameda with the Rev. Everett W. Cooper as the officiating clergyman, and will be a large wedding with several hundred guests. Miss Helen Johnson, sister of the groom-to-be, will be the maid of honor, and Miss Edna Hickok will be the best man. After a wedding tour the young couple will return to Alameda for a short visit before going to Napa, where they will make their permanent home.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.
The announcement of the engagement of Mr. E. E. Wilson and Miss Edna Hickok of Oakland, which was made yesterday, came as a surprise to their wide circle of friends, though Dame Gossip had been coupling the names of the two for several weeks. Mrs. Wilson was engaged in the early days of July for an extended sojourn in Europe, and it was thought best to make the formal announcement before her departure. The wedding will take place in the Episcopal church of Alameda, and the bride will be Miss Edna Hickok of Alameda. Her fiancé is a member of a prominent family in this city.

WEDDING AT HOME.
Miss Ruth Hickok will become the bride of Herbert L. Bartlett at a quiet ceremony this evening in the College avenue Methodist church. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. J. H. Williams, assisted by the Rev. C. A. Westenberg, an old friend of the bride's family. There will be a modern traveling suit of tan with hat to match, and will carry a shower of Cash Bruner roses. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom will leave for their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Jackson of Berkeley, who have just returned from a honeymoon in the north, left yesterday for Coronado by steamer. They will spend the summer in the south. Mrs. Jackson was formerly Miss Edith Akon of Marden, Manitoba. The Jacksons make their home at the Shattuck Hotel.

WEDDING PLANS TO COME.
Plans for another interesting June wedding will soon be made known, when Lynn Ansel Schloss of Berkeley takes as his bride Miss Reede Pickens, a belle of Stockton. Schloss is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Aaron Schloss of Hillegas avenue, a brother of Miss Vera Schloss, an attractive society maid of the college town.

WEST POINT CLASS OF 92 IS GRADUATED.
WEST POINT, N. Y., June 13.—West Point's class of 1913—92 Americans and one Cuban—was graduated yesterday.

Standing on the campus, before the battle monument, Secretary of War Garrison pledged the young officers which are to be given the first and third Friday in the months of July and August. Mrs. Samuel R. Rutter is general chairman of the association.

PARENT-TEACHERS CLUB TO GIVE SOCIAL DANCES.
The Parent-Teachers Association has secured the right to use the Franklin school assembly halls for social dances which are to be given the first and third Friday in the months of July and August. Mrs. Samuel R. Rutter is general chairman of the association.

HER LOVE MATURED AS SHE NEARED GOLDEN GATE

Miss Ivy Brown's "No" Turned to "Yes" Just Before Landing.

Oscar Ferris, Persistent Wooer, Is From Fair Los Angeles.

SHE WAS TO BE A FAVORABLE omen during a 20-day voyage from Australia to the Golden Gate, so a young couple arriving yesterday on the Royal Mail liner Moana learned. The engagement of Miss Ivy Brown, a London girl, and Oscar Ferris, a young man of Los Angeles, was the talk of the ship when the steamer anchored in quarantine.

Only the night before the liner reached the bay, the young man received the answer which turned his disappointment into joy. Perched at the outset of the voyage from the Antipodes, the young man won his acceptance at the final stage.

"We expect to be married in the near future," said Ferris. "At first, Miss Brown's parents weren't inclined to give their consent, but I guess it will be all right. I don't mind admitting that I was turned down at first, but what is that when everything comes out all right?"

CRIME LESSENED BY SUFFRAGE.
WASHINGTON, June 13.—Woman suffrage as a means of lessening crime, advocated here today by C. E. Sebastian, chief of police of Los Angeles, Cal., in an address before the closing session of the annual convention of the International Association of Police Chiefs.

Chief Sebastian declared that "through suffrage recognition of policemen in Los Angeles had been obtained and crime had been materially reduced." Suffrage, he added, had helped to break down the false notion which had presented public discussion of sex problems.

The chiefs chose Grand Rapids, Mich., as their next meeting place and re-elected all officers except sergeant-at-arms.

CONFESSION SOLVES THEFT.
NEW YORK, June 13.—The mystery surrounding Mrs. Jules Venable's pink pearl necklace, which was valued at $10,000, was solved yesterday when J. Edward Lough, who served a term in Sing Sing for defrauding New York jewelers by obtaining the gems on memorandum and then leaving town, testified in the Supreme Court in a suit brought against Mrs. Venable by Ludwig pennant, Scott after her husband's conviction she went into seclusion in the Santa Cruz mountains, where, it is reported, she is struggling for an existence.

Despite her husband's downfall, Mrs. Black remains a loyal wife and is struggling to support her children. Mrs. Black completes her term.

SUES FORMER WIFE.
MARINEZ, June 13.—Suit for $500 damages for alleged false imprisonment has been brought by William Silva against Maria Azaveda, his divorced wife. Silva claims that since his wife secured a final divorce decree last year she has caused his arrest on three different occasions. His latest arrest was on a charge of arson, preferred by the woman, who claimed that Silva set fire to her home in Concord. The charge was dismissed.

MAY YONE TO RETURN.
LONDON, June 13.—It is announced that May Yone will return to the stage on June 16, when she will appear with a company which is playing at the London Opera house. She will sing her famous-making song, "Honey Moon."

BABY'S TALK LURES BACK MOTHER'S MEMORY.
OTTAWA, Kan., June 13.—Through the prattle of her 2-year-old daughter, Mrs. Eunice Ake of Oroville, Cal., who was taken from a Missouri Pacific train here unconscious, was able yesterday to recall her identity. Mrs. Ake was on her way to Brazil, Ind., when taken from the train with a bruise on her face. She recovered consciousness, but could not recall her name. Today a nurse asked the little girl her name. "Baby Ake," she answered. The mother overheard and solved the mystery of her own identity. She does not remember the cause of her becoming unconscious.

Carelessness a Spur to Science

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyrighted, 1915, by Lillian Russell.)

IF I make the simple assertion that human ignorance or carelessness is one of the foundation stones of scientific discovery, without going into detail, I would invite quite an argument. A woman friend ruined her hair by careless application of every quack tonic that came to her attention. Her hair became thin and she was in despair. Science—I refer to the ordinary usage of the word—never can improve the human body. The discovery of various methods of treating ill is merely the work of one class of human beings to help out another class which, through improper understanding and unwise living, come to suffer. How much better it would have been for my friend to have exercised care and moderation in the use of hair tonics. Then she would not have been subjected to worry and expense until she found a method of restoring her hair to its natural state. I have been had she applied the brush properly and selected a hair tonic with great care instead of accepting every quack remedy. There are many methods of caring for the hair, some of them good and others bad. But one thing is certain. It is far, far better to care for the hair while you have it than to run the risk of finding a restorative medicine of influence after it has grown thin or lifeless. A little effort today is worth a great amount later on. Remember, care in living seems unimportant while health and beauty are yours, but once they begin to fail and fade that importance will be measured by regret.

MISS M. R. T. I do not give my readers samples of my various remedies, but I shall send formulas for some upon receipt of a stamped addressed envelope.

MAY I shall send you a formula for removing superfluous hair upon receipt of a stamped addressed envelope. If you would apply a good emollient wash to your face after using the skin food it would prevent a growth of hair. Massage your face about once a week. Nothing is better for sagging tissues than the skin food with massage. I am sorry, but I cannot give you advice on the article you mention. I would not advise you to use a flesh brush after that with plenty

MISS M. R. T. Dark and sal-

low necks are not the result of age, but the result of unconscious neglect. When bathing, the neck usually does not come in for its share of the water, for one stretches the neck out of the water so as to keep the hair dry. Consequently the neck is defrauded of its share in the bath. The outer layers of skin are not shed, but remain to become darker and rougher. If you would wash your neck with around it, while in the tub, a towel wrung out of very hot water, and keep it wet all the time you are in the tub. Rub the neck with your fingers after you have soaked it thus for twenty minutes a half an hour, and you will find the dead and dark skin will peel off in little rolls. Use a flesh brush after that with plenty of soap to make a good lather. If you do this three times a week you will find the skin of the neck will whiten, unless it is tanned by exposure to the sun.

MRS. R.—The best way to use the tonic is to apply it to the scalp with a medicine dropper and then massage it well into the scalp. This way you can get it all over the scalp without soaking your hair.

RUTH—I think your skin has become dry. It is the natural oil in the skin that keeps it soft, and when the skin is lacking the usual amount it becomes rough and scaly. The best way to remedy this is to massage a good skin food that contains good oil, two the skin at night. This will supply what is lacking and make the skin soft. I shall be glad to send you a formula for skin food if you will send me a stamped addressed envelope.

CHAPLAINS END FIRST CONGRESS

Erection of Chapels at All the Military Posts Recommended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The first congress of the Catholic Chaplain Corps of the army, and navy concluded a three-day session here today, adjourning to meet here again two years hence.

A resolution was adopted recommending to the secretaries of the army and navy the erection of chapels at all military posts. At present religious services are not held in any regular form. The suggestion of Secretary Daniels that the naval chaplains organize among Catholic enlisted men such societies as the Holy Name and the Holy Name was adopted.

Discussion developed an almost unanimous sentiment in favor of Catholic chaplains being allowed to wear the clerical garb of Catholic priests instead of the uniform.

The congress went on record in testifying to high character of army and navy officers and their co-operation in the work of the chaplains.

MOTHER AND SON MEET AFTER LONG SEPARATION

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Christopher Sanderson, who worked his way back to San Francisco on the liner Moana, which arrived here yesterday, recently discovered in New Zealand a mother of whose existence he was unaware until a few months ago, and in him, a grown man, his mother regained the tiny baby that was taken from her more than twenty years ago.

Sanderson's father and mother separated 23 years ago, in Auckland, N. Z. Thomas Westoby of Oakland, came from New Zealand on the same steamer with the Sandersons. Sanderson died early in 1906, and after the fire Westoby lost track of the boy. He found him a few months ago, working for the United Railroads, and told him, for the first time, about his mother in New Zealand.

EDITOR SPEAKS AGAINST SCHOOLS OF JOURNALISM

ST. LOUIS Mo., June 13.—Secretary of Agriculture Houston who is chancellor of Washington University, on leave of absence, presided yesterday at the annual commencement exercises of the university here.

The commencement address was delivered by Paul Elmer Moore, editor of the Nation. Mr. Moore characterized schools of journalism as evidence of modern reaction.

"Newspapermen will tell you," he said, "that the only way to obtain the knowledge necessary to the making of a newspaper is to acquire it in a newspaper office and not at college. Such schools take up time which the student might better devote to the obtaining of a general education."

JORDAN SPEAKS ON "THE FIGHT AGAINST WAR"

LINCOLN, June 13.—Chancellor David Starr Jordan of Leland Stanford University addressed the graduating class of the University of Nebraska here today on "The Fight Against War." He paid particular attention to the debt incurred by every country wherein war occurred, painting vivid pictures of war and its

WILL AUCTION OFF
MCKINLEY RELICS

Mrs. Hildt to Dispose of Her-looms, Which Are Encumbrance to Travel.

While a decision is pending in the local courts as to the ownership of a large quantity of heirlooms in the estate of the late President McKinley, announcement is made in San Francisco that Mrs. Marjorie McKinley Morse Hildt, daughter of the martyred President's favorite niece, is preparing to auction off other relics now in her possession and which are not included in the property under controversy.

As the wife of Lieutenant Emanuel Villard Hildt, U. S. A., stationed at Fort Thomas, Ky., Mrs. Hildt has found it troublesome to be burdened with the relics in moving about the country from one military post to another and she says that it is for this reason that she is disposing of the valuable heirlooms. They will be offered for sale to the highest bidder next Monday through E. T. Curtis of San Francisco.

The proposed sale attracts attention once more to the unusual lack of circumstances which have attended the distribution of the former president's possessions.

On June 1 last John Wamamaker, the Philadelphia merchant, purchased a gold diamond-studded plaque bearing an engraved invitation to President McKinley to visit the California Commandery Knights Templar, at San Francisco in 1904. It was presented to the McKinley grand lodge of Pennsylvania by Wamamaker, who rescued it from a pawnbroker at a cost of $1900. The California lodge was also a bidder for the plaque.

VALUABLE COLLECTION.
The collection in San Francisco consists of books, memorabilia, photographs, etc., of the late President.

McKinley at the time he made his tour of the country and attended San Francisco at the opening of the battle-ship Ohio.

POLICE CALLED TO DRIVE OUT BURGLAR

SAN MATEO, June 13.—The police received a hurry call last night to the effect that burglars were trying to enter the home of Mrs. Gerald Connors about 1:30 o'clock. Officers John Reilly and Edward Clima, the only members of the night force, responded to the call. After searching the neighborhood and finding no trace of prowlers, they returned to the station.

Shortly after another call came from Wock Yick's hotel at 129 Railroad avenue. Special Policeman Maurice Sheehan hurried to the scene and broke up a fight. Wock Yick, the proprietor of the hotel, appeared with a gun, of which Sheehan disarmed him. The Oriental tried out for help and immediately a mob of Chinese went to his aid. Sheehan fled for his life.

POLYTECHNIC ENGINEERS TO GIVE FINAL DANCE

The senior class of the Polytechnic College of Engineering will give their annual farewell dance at Maple hall tomorrow evening, June 14. The hall will be artfully decorated in the black and gold of the Class of '13, and delicious fruit punch will be served.

The committee of arrangements consists of the following members: Chet Yancy, chairman; F. M. Merrille, door manager; W. N. Lindblad, L. C. Edwards, P. E. Spitzer.

All friends of the engineers are most cordially invited to attend.

CALL MEETING AGAINST CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

The opponents of capital punishment in Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley are already lining up their forces for the abolition of the death penalty by initiative constitutional amendment in 1915. Dr. Susan J. Fenton and Miss Bessie J. Wood of the Child's Welfare League, Dr. Winifred S. Foster, Miss Beatrice A. McCall and Christopher Preece of the Probation Office, and Miss Anna C. Whitney of the California Civic League, are among those taking part in the call for a public meeting at the residence of Dr. Susan J. Fenton, 673 Fourteenth street, near Castro, Oakland, to be held at eight o'clock Saturday evening, June 14. All persons interested are invited to attend, and join in the undertaking.

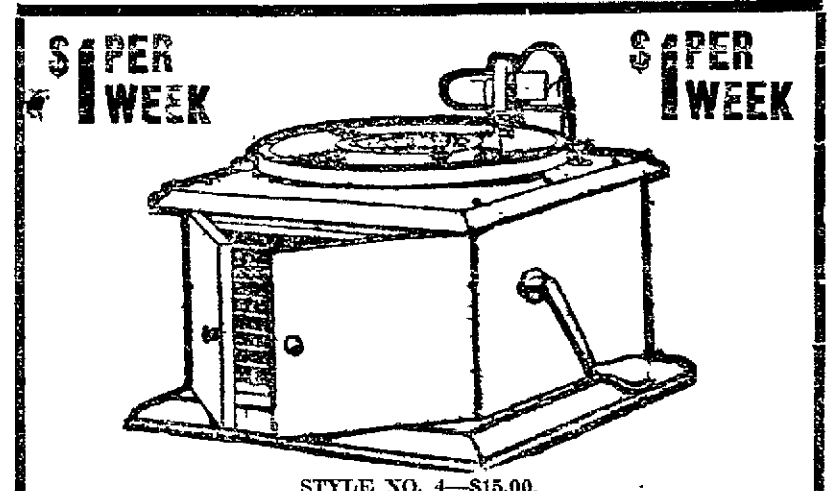

FOX MAY NOT GET POSTMASTER'S JOB

SACRAMENTO, June 13.—The chances of Thomas Fox, local democratic leader, being appointed postmaster here appear slim, according to advices received from Washington.

Senator Bankhead, chairman of the senate committee in charge, says that President Wilson has requested that the committee take no action until further notice.

BUILDERS' PARADE TO BE ARTISTIC

Decorations of Vehicles to Be Rewarded With Valuable Prizes.

Tomorrow's Builders' Exchange day industrial parade and outdoor festival promises to eclipse anything of the sort hitherto witnessed in this city.

The line of march will be from the corner of Tenth and Oak streets to Broadway, to Fourteenth, to Washington, to Sixth, to Broadway again, and along that thoroughfare to Twelfth street. Prizes will be awarded for the best industrial exhibit, best decorated motor truck, best decorated automobile and best decorated horse-drawn vehicle.

At noon the builders and their families and friends will visit Grand Canyon Park, North Richmond, where an old-fashioned picnic, with games, races and all the other attractions will terminate the day's festivities. Much interest attaches to the baseball contest at the stadium.

PASTOR OF PLYMOUTH CHURCH TO MAKE TRIP

Next week Rev. A. W. Palmer, pastor of Plymouth Congregational church, Oakland, will leave for Europe with a large party of Oaklanders and people from other east cities.

Mr. Palmer has been abroad many times and will be very valuable, as he is to act as leader for the other members of the party. He intends taking photos of the most interesting sights and will give lectures to his party en route. England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Germany, Switzerland, the Nile, Rome and the Holy Lands will be visited. Next Sunday June 15, will be Mr. Palmer's farewell sermons before his departure. The women's clubs, the Men's League and other organizations, besides the members of his congregation, are preparing to give him a hearty "send-off," and desire a record-breaking attendance at the closing services at Plymouth church next Sunday to show their appreciation and to wish him bon voyage and a safe return.

PRESIDENTIAL FAMILY TO VISIT S. F. FAIR SITE

LOS ANGELES, June 13.—Judge Robert S. Hughes, of Jersey City, chairman of the committee appointed to select the New Jersey site at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, yesterday made the announcement that in all probability President Wilson, his wife and three daughters would come to San Francisco in a few months to take a prominent part in the laying of the cornerstone of the New Jersey building.

"I obtained my information direct from the White House," said Judge Hughes, "and even if the President is not able to come Mrs. Wilson and her daughters will surely be there, for Jessie has consented to officiate with the towel on that occasion. However, only matters of the gravest importance would keep Mr. Wilson away. He is very desirous, I understand, to see for himself the first stages of the greatest exposition of modern times."

SAN FRANCISCO CHOSEN FOR NEXT CONVENTION

DENVER, June 13.—Officers were elected last night by the Hotel and Restaurant Employers' International Alliance and the Bartenders' International League in convention here and San Francisco was selected as the convention city for 1904. Officers elected:

President, Edward Flore of Buffalo; secretary and treasurer, J. L. Sullivan of Cincinnati; vice-presidents include F. Seama, Los Angeles.

Skeeter Fanning Has Now Traveled 57 Innings Without Walking One

ABLES IS JUST AS GOOD ON MOUND AS HE EVER WAS

Will Have Confidence Henceforth, and Lookout Next Time He Starts

(By BILLY FITZ.)

WELL, we used our two trumps and got cleaned, but the fans certainly got an ample for their silver. Though Harry Ables made his debut to the accompaniment of huzzas and hand-clapping, the big southpaw has yet to win or lose his first 1913 game, for which he can both thank and blame Owego Heeling, the field captain with the white teeth and ambitious disposition. "Jumbo" lasted four and one-half innings, the Seals having by that time squeezed a pair of aces over the table, with the second and third safety stations fully inhabited.

Mitze derricked himself onto the battlefield at this juncture and applied the tow-rope to Ables. He did not intend to risk any humiliation for the fellow the first time out, and it looked as though Harry was due to be bumped severely. Killhlay, the Boston student, was waived to the firing line, and the goddess of Fortune beamed serenely upon Jack's classic brow.

With Schmidt at the keystone and Fanning hugging first, William Patrick Hogan aimed a shot at Ables' feet. Harry removed his feet and was about to substitute his hands, when he remembered that broken finger. He let the shot pass, and Zacher, hastening in to nab Schmidt at the plate, flung over Bohrer's head. That made the score 2 to 0 with the probability of a substantial increase. So Harry was not sorry to be led away.

No sympathy goes out to Jack Killhlay this morning. He twirled in championship form, striking out five and allowing but three hits in the seven innings he was on deck. His only base on balls, issued in the 11th to Wuffill, lost the game for the but and ran signal was flashed. Jimmie Johnston bunted toward third and both Heeling and Killhlay started to retrieve. Killhlay booted the third baseman by coming too close and Gus hesitated a moment before making a hurried throw which was wide of first base by a yard or more. Before Gardner could get his hands on the ball, Wuffill was all the way home. Not an error run in the game.

No one had a better right to toss the old game overboard than did Heeling. He saved it twice in the seventh inning with two departed. Coy got the first hit off Fanning with a single to right, reached second safely, thanks to Corahan's murf of the throw, and came home when Gardner singled his past third. Johnston got the ball to Schmidt in plenty of time, but the catcher dropped it. Heeling then tied it up with a lousy double to left center.

In the ninth, with a man on second, Heeling grabbed a liner off McArdle's bat, but the third out, saving the game the second time.

The writer studied Harry Ables carefully yesterday and is convinced that the fellow is as good as he ever was. It was not to be expected that he would be great. He is a good pitcher, and yesterday after such a long lay-off he showed the knowledge that the little finger on his throwing hand was still twice the size it used to be, and still far from limber. His delivery was never very good to begin with, but he walked two men in doing it.

Harry has still his great speed and wonderful curves. He walked three men yesterday and he struck out three, which is the average he used to have. With Mitze behind the plate, Ables will do much better. As a matter of fact, he has secured off Ables yesterday night he never was stopped. The first was registered by Hogan on a walk, two infield outs and then a pitch, which cut away from Bohrer, hitting the dirt just behind the plate.

Schmidt, who got the second run, also got on with a walk, and should have been caught at the plate on Hogan's hit through the infield to Zacher who hit the grandstand.

Once again, Charles Fanning gave an exhibition of remarkable control, traveling 11 innings without issuing transportation. This makes 57 consecutive rounds and one pass for Fanning.

We respectfully suggest to Congress that it investigate the Los Angeles club as a combination in restraint of victory. The Angels made it three straight on Portland yesterday, running away on the beach and keeping Bohrer in in the air. Peritt was like an oyster in the penches.

It is now 50-50 in the south, Worcester's men winning a slugging source from the Venetians, 10 to 6, and hammering four pitchers.

Swede Rieber, the little San Francisco pitcher for whom great things were expected, has been sold by Spokane to the Salt Lake Union association.

Water Baseball Is the Latest Sport Novelty

NEW YORK, June 11.—Water baseball, the latest sport novelty, is being tried out at a natatorium in an amusement park here with the idea of organizing a local eight-club league. The game includes many of the features of regular baseball with unique variations, including diving for bases instead of sliding. It is suggested that if major league players were all good swimmers and adopted this plan the wettest of wet grounds would be no excuse for postponement of a big game.

Don Thomas will probably work for San Francisco this afternoon, while Pernell figures to be sent back with Chrisman and Olmsted warming up in the offing. Killhlay and Ables will be held for Sunday.

Poor old McArdle, the hardluck hitter, was rebuffed again by Heeling and Becker. The Virginian turned a somersault in left while chasing McArdle of a two-bagger.

There isn't another player in the league except Johnston who would have caused Killhlay to commit that balk in the sixth inning. Johnston had the base stolen anyway, so Killhlay figured to take a chance on him. Johnston was in motion to balk, Killhlay was in motion to balk, Johnston started for second, Killhlay wheeled and tossed to Leard, who tagged Johnston. Johnston was in motion to bunt, but the runner was out. The Seals yelled, and Umpire Finney declared that Killhlay committed a balk, and his team carried. The Oaks made no protest.

Young Julius Pappa, the former St. Mary's college student, is playing great ball for Spokane. A single and a triple and not an error being chalked against him.

An indefinite suspension was the punishment meted out to Second Baseman Knabe of the Philadelphia club for his trouble with Manager Tinker of Cincinnati.

Home run Baker of the Athletics is in the midst of a slump. In the last two games he has not succeeded in getting one safe hit.

Shortstop Maraville and First Baseman Myers of the Boston Nationals slipped over a triple play on Cincinnati stopping what threatened to be a ninth inning hit. Almeida and Groh, first two up in the ninth, secured singles. Berghammer drove a liner to Maraville who caught it, stepped on second and doubling Almeida and tripling Groh at first.

The national baseball commission has declared the transfer of Player Olson from the St. Louis American league club to the San Francisco club null and void, and ordered the former club to reimburse the San Francisco club the expense incurred by the player in returning to the latter club. This was on account of the bad condition in which the player returned, he submitted at the time that he was in ill health and was not fit to play. The total amount of the reimbursement was placed at $109.40.

CAUTION NECESSARY IN RESCUING FROM DROWNING

By CECIL MARTIN,
Physical Director Y. M. C. A.

In the event of rescuing, one subjects himself to great peril, especially if the victim is violent. It is a well-known saying that a "drowning person catches at every straw." A death clutch is the most difficult to free one's self from. Thus to obviate unnecessary risks, exercise precaution in approaching a victim. Always avoid endeavoring to grasp the victim from his front, for he will surely clutch you. Even in a semi-conscious condition he will turn towards you as it usual for drowning people he will turn towards you as it is usual for drowning people.

A positive advantage to facilitate towing is to prevent the dragging of the body. Therefore keep horizontal the body to the surface of the water. When legs drag, a groove from the legs of the rescuer will keep patient's body and lower limbs on a horizontal plane.

Always keep face of drowning person above water exposed to air, even if at times the rescuer should become immersed.

Avoid jerking, struggling or tugging. A well-regulated stroke will husband the rescuer's strength and impart confidence to patient, who will be able to breathe freely and undisturbed. Then all violent efforts due to fear will be considerably pacified.

Use judgment in conveying persons to shore. Do not waste strength hopelessly against adverse tide or current of stream. Rather float gradually by a well-directed course to shore, or wait for available assistance.

has that the grand exalted ruler of the E. A. has ordered that the attempt of E. A. be held up for investigation. It is likely the investigation will hinge on the question of whether the E. A. want fighters as members of the order.

Willie Meegan and Brick Burgess, a pair of middleweights to whom the meaning of backing up is unknown, will furnish the main event of the Market Club's four-round boxing entertainment at Dreamland this evening.

Johnny McCarthy, a lad who has fought many a good fight in the Dreamland rink, will go against Mexican Kid Carter, a Los Angeles welterweight who recently arrived from Los Angeles with the Joe Rivers party.

Kid Kenneth and Jack Lester have been matched for a twenty-round bout at Taft, Saturday.

VANCOUVER, B. C. June 13.—Freddie Welsh, British lightweight champion, clearly out-pointed Ray Campbell of Oakland last night at the Brighthouse arena, gaining a decision at the end of the scheduled 15-round bout.

Welsh was a flyer lead in every round, but only in the fourth and fourteenth he really extended himself. At long range boxing Campbell made a reasonable showing against him, but at fighting Welsh was easily his superior.

Bantamweight Champion Johnny Coulton of Chicago and Johnny "Kid" Williams of Baltimore, were matched at Los Angeles yesterday by Promoter McCarver, to fight at Vernon Arena the night of July 25, for the bantamweight championship of the world.

"Jet" Clarke and Harry Wells have been signed for a ten-round bout in New Orleans June 18. The agreement provides the winner of the bout is to meet Sam Langford in July at New Orleans.

Dodges Petroskey, But Signs Up With Berk on Guarantee of $1500.

(By THE TIMEKEEPER.)
OB McALLISTER and Otto Berg will probably meet for ten rounds on the night of June 25th before the West Oakland Club. Following a conference between managers and prospective promoters, it is said to have agreed to the match on being guaranteed $1500. So far it has not been announced just who is behind Matchmaker Tommy Simpson.

Unless some promoter offers fat enough financial inducements, Johnny Kilbane will stand by the statement of his manager, Jimmie Dunn, and spend the summer at his home in Cleveland. The little featherweight champion, accompanied by his wife and two kiddies, left this city yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock for Los Angeles. He will remain in the southern metropolis until Sunday, when he will be joined by Manager Dunn, and the entire party will leave for the East.

Those are the present plans of Manager Dunn, but there is a possibility that these plans may receive a complete change.

We are willing to meet any featherweight—ring or featherweight," said Dunn this morning, "if offered large enough inducements."

"However, we are not so very anxious for a match in the course of the next summer. There still seems to be an inclination on the part of some of the promoters to get Johnny to meet 'Red' Watson, but there is a possibility that Kilbane against some lightweight with a better reputation. Watson is much too large a boy for Kilbane. If we don't get any date in the course of the next few days we will remain in the East until September. In that month we will again return to California when we expect to get a match with Coffroth."

James Edward Britt is in San Francisco looking for a match with a lightweight, and making new ones. He is appearing on the local stage at the Dreamland, after the former lightweight to referee tonight's four-round contest in Dreamland.

Reeling on the Ritchie-Rivers July 4 bout has started at 10 to 8 with the champion on the long end. Rivers has arranged for the training quarters at the Sea View Hotel and will start training on Sunday. Manager Joe Levy is still waiting for earnings partners but so far the only one on the list is Mexican Kid Carter, who will start training with the Levy party. Carter has an engagement to fight Johnny McCarthy this evening at Dreamland, and may not be available for a sparring partner as early as Sunday.

STEAMER OLINDA REACHES DOCKS

SAVANNAH, Ga., June 13.—The Munson Liner steamer Olinda docked here at 6 o'clock last evening, having extinguished the fire in her hold. The officers said that a thorough survey would be made of her condition tomorrow to determine the amount of damage done by the fire.
As soon as possible the vessel will proceed to Cuba.

NEW YORK, June 13.—While the steamship Olinda with a fire in her hold, was signalling for help off the Georgia coast, her sister ship, the Curituba, was only a few miles away drifting in a terrific storm. The Curituba reached this port today.

in the Titanic disaster, was officially appraised this afternoon at $86,966,611, of which Vincent Astor receives $58,964,499;
Mrs. Madeline Force Astor $17,678,896; Muriel Astor $4,856,758; and John Jacob Astor, son by his second marriage, $2,992,672.

Guaranteed Eczema Remedy.
The constant itching, burning, redness, rash and disagreeable effects of eczema,
tetter, salt rheum, itch, piles and irri-

WHEN THE RIGHT MAN APPEARS MANY HEARTACHES DISAPPEAR

By LAURA JEAN LIBBEY

(Copyright, 1913, by Laura Jean Libbey.)

LAURA JEAN LIBBEY.

girl in the world to dine at her home, hoping that her son and she might be mutually attracted to each other. But no mother need to worry over the outcome. They are not suited to each other in any way. It is certainly decreed that he shall look much further for his wife.

Even mothers, who seem to be adept in marrying again, often find it difficult to locate husband number two, and they often get the location of number two and number three mixed. But she soon unravels the intricate mysteries of locating a husband, and all is well.

It has been asked if there are ever mistakes made in locating a husband.
Taking into consideration all the unhappy marriages we hear of we might take it for granted that all women are not infallible in making a choice. No one is so far seeing that they may be absolutely correct. This would show that there may be errors made in locating him. But they are discovered soon enough.

There are times when it is hard to repair the damage and to keep the heart from breaking. There are some estimable women who have lived and died in single blessedness, who have frankly admitted that locating a husband was like hide and seek with them. He was so elusive that they were never able to locate him. Be this as it may, there are some of these ladies who took pains to dodge their would-be mates, going quite the opposite direction from where their would-be husbands were located. This cannot be said to be fair, but a woman's will.

Seriously speaking, it is one of life's most interesting mysteries. In man it makes the pursuit of love both more and worth all the trouble of the chase of love. There are some men who do not take the trouble to begin their search early in life. They go through twice as many ordeals to look for the one who is to make the happiness of their lives complete.

Thus it will be seen that the location of husband or wife is the one problem of life which is hardest to solve, for those who are nearest and dearest cannot find them.

MUCH of the perplexities of single women might be eliminated if they knew just where to locate the husbands intended for them. That they will eventually meet is a matter of course. But many are impatient in biding their time. If they were able to locate Mr. Right they would not have to spend unnecessary time in entertaining a score or more of would-be lovers to no purpose.
A vast amount of heartaches might be saved, too, in not worrying over the fickle fellow who turns from his sweetheart to a new face. She would know he was not intended for her,
and wait until the one came to her that was destined to be true as steel.

One who was located in the west, while her home was in the east, she would accept the invitation of a school friend to visit her, believing that by the time she returned again to her family roof all her prospects would be settled, for she was carrying out the great plan made of heart-aches meeting where hills and mountains don't.

The same rule holds good in a young man locating a wife. If he knew just where to look for her he would save many a man from roaming the whole wide world over. He would realize why this girl with all her beauty did not appeal to him, nor that one, with all her wealth and wit.
Neither one or the other was intended for him.

A mother may bring the sweetest girl in the world to dine at her home, hoping that her son and she might be mutually attracted to each other. But no mother need to worry over the outcome. They are not suited to each other in any way. It is certainly decreed that he shall look much further for his wife.

Even mothers, who seem to be adept in marrying again, often find it difficult to locate husband number two, and they often get the location of number two and number three mixed. But she soon unravels the intricate mysteries of locating a husband, and all is well.

WOMAN'S PART IN THE NEWS

PARIS, June 13.—Mary Garden has been lying ill and confined to her apartment here since the middle of May, and fears are entertained that her illness is of a serious character.

When her indisposition began it was announced that she was unable to sing Salome because she had the grip, but today the opera management stated that she was too ill to sing in "The Jewels of the Madonna," in which she was scheduled to sing in its first performance here and consequently the production has been postponed indefinitely.

At Miss Garden's apartment no visitor is admitted, but her sister sent out word that she is getting better. In opera circles the nature of the illness is unknown, but the management's announcement today gives rise to fears that the case is more serious than an attack of grip.

Boxing Beauty Would Be Whipped

NEW YORK, June 13.—The belle of the big White Star liner Olympic, arriving from Europe, was Miss Jean Merrell, the heroine of the "movies." Miss Merrell had a string of admirers all the way across. Miss Merrell was known as the "boxing girl," tall and athletic looking.

On the steamer was J. M. Boissevain, an attaché of the Holland government service, on the way to Java. He was boasting of his boxing abilities, when Miss Merrell naively asked him if he would like to put the gloves on with her.

On deck an impromptu ring was erected by Government Inspector Wilson.
The girl and Boissevain went three rounds, during which the girl turned loose a bunch of hooks and jabs, swine and counters. When they got through the "boxing grip" was rusty with the exercise and the man from Holland was puffing some. He shook hands with his opponent and declared that she was all right.

"Believe me," said Gymnasium Inspector Wilson, "that young lady is handy with the gloves. She only lacks the punch."

"Forewoman" or "Fore lady"

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Shall the female foreman of the charwomen at the custom house be addressed as "forewoman" or "forelady"? is a question that was put to the collector of the port Tuesday by the twenty-five charwomen employed to keep the floors of the custom house clean. Recently Mrs. Millie Reed was appointed by Assistant Custodian Frank V. McDonald to preside over the force, and she had been in office hardly twenty-four hours before there was trouble. She insisted that she should be addressed as "fore-lady," the women said, but they refused to give her any title other than that of "forewoman," which, they claimed, to be good Anglo-Saxon.

Demoralization ensued. The authorities decided that the secretary of the treasury, or the department of public buildings, or the United States supervising architect should be asked to send Mrs. Reed a lettre de cachet similar to the ones asking Naval Officer Stone, Customs Surveyor McKinlay and Appraiser Mattos to send in their resignations.

A man will be appointed in her place, with the understanding that he will be satisfied with the title "foreman."

SUPERIOR COURTS CALENDARS CLEAR

For the first time in many years the calendars of the Alameda County Superior Courts are practically cleared of all litigation that is ready for trial, a condition which is considered as remarkable from the fact that five years ago the different departments were from twelve to eighteen months behind.

Superior Judge W. H. Waste stated today that were it not for the annual court vacation, his calendar could be caught up by August 1, and that the same condition existed in each of the other departments, varying somewhat in length of time.

It would seem that the calendars may not again become congested, provision has been made for the operation of two extra sessions during the court vacation, while two of the regular departments will try cases. It is believed that the four departments will be able to handle the routine work during the summer weeks, as court business is somewhat diminished during that period. Court vacation will commence next Monday and continue until August 1.

"It is largely due to the assistance given by the extra sessions that this state of affairs has been brought about," said Judge Waste.

He said that the calendars were usually in a state of confusion during the summer months, and that there would be two extra sessions in the extra sessions.

EDINBURGH, Scotland, June 12.—The progress of the Young Men's Christian Association in America engaged the attention of the delegates to the World's Conference of the association, which opened today.

National Secretary Pieno of Norway showed that the European branch had gained 300,000 members in six years.
Delegates from four countries asked the reasons for America's superiority. Dr. C.

J. Fisher answered with an address on the influence of physical training in the making of Christian manhood.
